PRICE SEVEN CENTS

Name Majestic Firemen's Head

Ahlberg, Jones, DuBois, Keator Also Elected; Harder Gets His 16th Term

George Majestic, supervisor of the Town of Gardiner and operator of Majestic hardware store in that community, was elected president of the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association at the annual business meeting Friday night at Tillson Firehouse.

Majestic succeeds Arthur Hahn of Binnewater, who presented the association's president's pin to his successor. The retiring president received his past president's pin from Adam Ulrich, chairman of the board of the association.

Next in Gardiner In accordance with tradition next year's convention will be offered to Gardiner.

Other officers elected at the business session held in conjunction with the annual county convention were:

First vice-president, Ernest Ahlberg of New Paltz. Second vice-president, Lewis "Casey"

Dems Call Truce in Criticisms Rayburn, Johnson Not Ousting Boss

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democrats operated under a wary truce today that seemed likely to end—for a while at least—National Chairman Paul Butler's criticisms of party congressional leaders.

In exchange for this apparent understanding, Butler got public assurances from Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) and Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas that they are taking no part in any effort to oust him.

Disagreement Holds Behind the political sweetness and light which flowed out of a long conference of the three Friday, however, there remained unchanged the basic disagreement on policy between the national chairman and the two leaders.

Butler gave no sign he intends to alter his advocacy of what he regards as a liberal legislative program. Rayburn and Johnson remained firmly committed to a middle of the road course involving practical compromises to get bills passed.

Rayburn said in this connection that he and Johnson are going to "pass what we think is right and let the chips and the vetoes fall where they may."

Friendly Conference In what the speaker described as a "very friendly conference," Butler did his best to convince the two leaders that he hadn't been criticizing them in repeated statements that the Democratic Congress was moving too slowly toward fulfilling the promises of the 1956 Democratic platform.

N. Y. Polio Cases 24 Above Same Period in 1958

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—The State Health Department reports a total of 46 polio cases so far this year in the 57 counties outside of New York City. The total at this time last year was 22.

State Health Commissioner Herman E. Hilleboe said Friday the increase pointed up a need for all persons to receive Salk anti-polio vaccine.

New York City operates its own health department and reports independently on its polio cases.

Kidnaping Story Was Hoax, Jersey Soap Heiress Says

CHICAGO (AP)—A New Jersey socialite heiress has admitted her story of being kidnaped from the Newark airport by two men, driven to Chicago and then released because she was "too hot" to keep was a myth.

Pretty Jacqueline Gay Hart, 21, broke down Friday under the gentle questioning of her father, Ralph A. Hart executive vice-president of the Colgate-Palmolive Co., and an FBI agent. After confessing the hoax, Miss Hart said she did not remember what had happened since she vanished from the New Jersey airport Tuesday night.

The FBI said it was checking all phases of Miss Hart's story which unfolded after she ap-

Jones of Connelly. Fred Harder of Kingston was reelected to his 16th term as secretary and Henry DuBois of New Paltz was reelected treasurer. Lee Keator of New Paltz was elected director for five years.

Following his being escorted to the rostrum to take over his new duties, the president's pin was presented to President Majestic by Past President Hahn who was presented with a past-president's pin. The retiring president thanked the members for the cooperation which had been extended to him during the past year and expressed the hope that President-elect Majestic would receive the same assistance.

To Parade Today The business session, which was a part of the three-day 1959 convention was held at Tillson firehouse. The County Association was guest of the Township of Rosendale Fire Department. The convention will be brought to a close today with the big firemen's parade at 5 p. m.

The business session was called to order by President Hahn and after the Invocation by the Rev. Albert Shultis and the Pledge of Allegiance, led by Ulrich, the business of the evening was taken up. There were 32 companies represented by over 100 members.

A communication was read from the Sullivan County Volunteer Firemen's Association inviting Ulster County members to attend a meeting at Liberty Tuesday, Aug. 11, at 8:30 p. m. Two-way radio will be the topic. Since Ulster County is one of the most recent counties to receive radio for the volunteers, this session should be of great interest.

Ulrich, chairman of the board of directors, gave his report and thanked the convention committee for the wonderful convention arrangements.

Discuss Mutual Aid Mutual Aid was discussed at some length by several delegates. Winfred Snyder of Hurley, Ulster County Fire Coordinator; Eldred Smith, William Murphy, Edward Mains and Elmer Young, Greene County Fire Coordinator and a representative of the State Division of Safety, were among those who discussed the matter of Mutual Aid. There were several situations presented and at the conclusion of the session.

Worst Reckless Case: Klein Youth Is Caught After 75-MPH Chase in City

A 21-year-old youth, who police say tried to elude three policemen in a 75-mile-an-hour chase through many downtown streets after 4 a. m. today, pleaded guilty before City Judge Aaron E. Klein to speeding and reckless driving.

Fined Total of $150 Route Barry Purcell, Box 399, Route 4, Maple Hill, who is home on leave from the Navy, was fined a total of $150 or 75 days in the Ulster County jail. He was ordered held until the fines were paid.

Before passing sentence, Judge Klein told the youth, "this is the very worst case of reckless driving that ever came to the attention of this court. Ordinarily I would put you in jail, but because you are in the service I will not, but you cannot escape severe punishment for your acts."

Purcell pleaded guilty to a reckless driving charge lodged by Patrolman Sheldon O'Rourke peared, screaming and crying. "Help me! help me!" beside a police cruiser in downtown Grant Park early Friday.

Authorities sent out a broadcast describing the 14-carat diamond ring, an amethyst ring, a brooch and a bracelet which she said the men stripped from her. At the outset, the FBI and police were skeptical of the girl's story of being seized, blindfolded and gagged, tossed in the tonneau of a car under a blanket and driven by two abductors to Chicago and then released in the lakefront park.

Police said Miss Hart's smart gray tweed dress, white sweater, black shoes and sheer stockings failed to show any of the wear which unfolded after she ap-

Van Valkenburgh Gives Up PO Job For School Post

A Kingston native, Clifford S. Van Valkenburgh Jr., of New Paltz, announced his resignation as New Paltz postmaster to accept a position on the junior high school faculty of New Paltz Central School. His resignation becomes effective August 21.

Van Valkenburgh, a former mathematics teacher at Myron J. Michael School, and once one of Kingston High School's outstanding basketball players, will begin teaching mathematics at the New Paltz school this fall.

Named by Ike in '57 He was appointed to the first class post office as postmaster in February 1957 by President Eisenhower. Appointed acting postmaster April 1, 1956, he succeeded Jay Zimmerman who held that post for 17 years.

A graduate of New Paltz State Teachers College, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford S. Van Valkenburgh of 126 Downs Street. His father is a deputy in the Ulster County clerk's office in Kingston.

Nixon Unshaken After Jousts Herter May Ask Long Recess

Strategy Hinted if Reds Hold Geneva Parley Is In Recess Today

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER GENEVA (AP)—Secretary of State Christian A. Herter may propose next week a long recess of the Big Four conference unless the Soviet Union softens her terms for easing the Berlin crisis. But he chances both Western and Soviet opposition.

Divided Over Progress As the foreign ministers' conference went into its ninth week, the Allies were divided over whether their talks with the Soviet Union are progressing. Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko has been talking about the need to keep seeking a Berlin settlement formula.

The parley was in recess today with only Gromyko expected to remain here throughout the week end.

Herter in Bonn Herter was expected to return tonight after a flying good-bye visit to West Berlin, his first visit to the divided city since becoming secretary of state. Britain's Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd went to London for consultation while Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville of France was on a trip to Brussels and Paris.

Secret Session Monday The next meeting is set for late Monday, a secret session at Lloyd's residence. Herter reportedly hopes to get some intimation at that time whether there is any chance that Gromyko will give way on the key issue—his proposal for creation of a committee of East and West Germans to negotiate on a German peace settlement.

The West repeatedly has rejected this demand. Gromyko has been insistent in demanding its acceptance as the price for his agreement to a Berlin truce. The Western ministers say they will never agree to any new machinery granting Communist East Germany equality with West Germany.

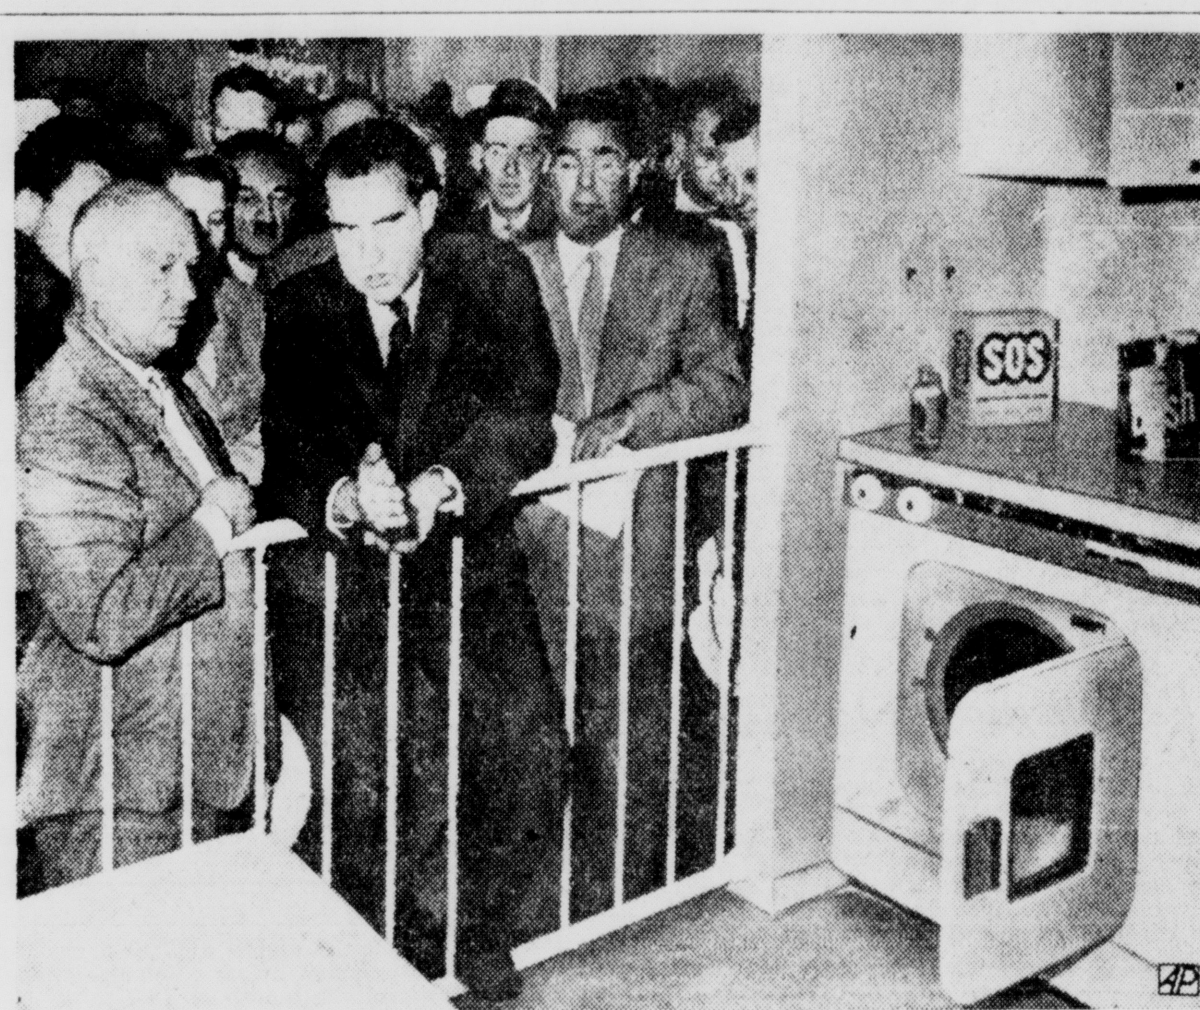

Consumers Keep Economy Moving Toward New Highs

By WALTER BREEDE JR. AP Business News Writer NEW YORK (AP)—Consumers kept the economy steaming toward new highs this week.

Many businessmen were betting that not even the steel strike could stop the boom. Stepped-up consumer buying of just about everything you could name held out the promise of record sales for dozens of major corporations.

Auto Industry Cashing In The effects were already apparent in the auto industry, cashing in on its biggest sales bonanza since 1955.

Hurricane Lashes Wide Texas Area

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP)—Hurricane Debra moved into Texas between this resort city and Houston early today, lashing a wide area with winds up to 80 miles an hour.

The Weather Bureau placed the center of the hurricane at a little southeast of Houston at 7 a. m. (CST) and said it was moving northward at 5 to 8 m.p.h.

East Houston Target The hurricane was pointed at the eastern edge of Houston, including the Houston International Airport, expensive residential sections, the suburb city of Pasadena and a heavy industrial area.

Upper Galveston Bay, including a number of resort towns and large refinery and shipping installations, were expected to bear the brunt of the high winds and heavy tides.

Torrential rains that fell on much of the upper Texas Coast were to spread northward through East Texas and extreme West Louisiana today with amounts up to 15 inches, the weather bureau advisory warned.

2,000 Leave Homes Six foot tides at the north end of Galveston Island flooded lowlands and highways, disrupted power and sent more than 2,000 persons scurrying from their coastal homes to seek overnight shelter in courthouses, schools and other public buildings.

The Weather Bureau said winds at the center were 80 m.p.h. and gales extended 50 miles to the northwest and 100 miles to the southeast of the center. Winds of 75 to 78 m.p.h. ranged into Galveston when the brunt of the hurricane struck there at 2:30 a. m.

One of Two Area Fatals Sawkill Man Loses Life As Car Overturns on 28

There were two area fatalities in vehicular accidents overnight, an automobile plunged into 20 feet of water in Rifton Lake when its driver went to sleep at the wheel, and a 15-year-old Yonkers youth led Dutchess County police authorities on a 20-mile chase in a stolen car before he was finally stopped with a brace of bullets fired into the rear of the vehicle.

John L. Ellsworth, 28, of Sawkill Trailer Park, was pronounced dead on arrival at Benedictine Hospital early this morning after his car turned over on Route 28 near the Sunset Drive-In Theatre.

Another More Fortunate Adrian Couse, about 40, of Linden Avenue, town of Red Hook, was killed in a two-car collision on Linden Avenue in that township, not far from the village of Red Hook, Friday night.

More fortunate was Vernon Stoutenburgh, 18, of Box 34, Rifton, whose car plunged off a rock cliff into Rifton Lake when he went to sleep at the wheel early this morning. Stoutenburgh slipped through a window of the vehicle and swam ashore.

Deputy Sheriff Jack Seaholm of the Ulster County sheriff's office reported that Ellsworth was proceeding south on Route 28 about 2:10 a. m. when he failed to negotiate a left curve, crossed the highway to the east, skidded about 30 feet on the roof of the car.

The vehicle finally came to rest right side up.

Couse was killed when he attempted to pass a car operated by Thalmers R. Becker, 67, of Linden Avenue, town of Red Hook. The Becker car was attempting to make a left turn into a private driveway on Linden Avenue about a mile north of Route 199.

Rhinbeck state police reported that Couse attempted to pass on the left side, striking the Becker car with the right front fender, veering off the left side of the road to a lawn, sideswiping a telephone pole. Couse was thrown from the car to the highway. Both vehicles were traveling in the same direction.

Says Soviet Reception Pleasing Kozlov, Mikoyan Visits Start Today

MOSCOW (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon called at the Kremlin today and told First Deputy Premier Frol R. Kozlov that he and his wife have been "very touched at our warm reception."

Nixon was clearly unshaken by his verbal jousts Friday with Premier Nikita Khrushchev when at times their words reached a heated pitch.

Unofficially Pleased "Not only officially but unofficially we have been very pleased at our reception by people in all walks of life," the vice president told Kozlov.

Kozlov only recently returned from a tour of the United States. He opened the Soviet Exhibition in New York June 28. Nixon's first call this morning was to see First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan to talk trade. He met a somewhat frosty reception, but he laughed it off.

The vice president took with him Harold Boeschstein, president of Owens Corning Fiberglass Corp., of Toledo, Ohio. Introducing him to Mikoyan, Nixon said, "He is one of our leading businessmen with much experience around the world. I thought you two business-minded men should get together."

Nixon Unperturbed "The State Department will decide," retorted Mikoyan in an obvious reference to the State Department's restrictions on trade with Communist countries in potential war goods.

Nixon was unperturbed by the quip and laughed. The two officials had met before when Mikoyan toured the United States early this year and plumped for more trade between the United States and the Soviet Union.

"Very glad to see you," said Nixon as he entered Mikoyan's office. Mikoyan walked quickly across the room to shake hands. They posed for a picture and then sat at a red cloth-topped table.

Rickover With Veep Nixon was accompanied on his visit to Kozlov by Vice Adm. Hyman G. Rickover, the U.S. atomic submarine expert.

Rickover and Kozlov had traded barbed jests when the Soviet official visited the United States, but today they exchanged warm greetings.

The American admiral handed Kozlov an envelope containing some pictures taken of him when he visited the atomic power plant at Shippingport, Pa.

"You are very photogenic," he quipped. "Handsomeness enough to be a movie star."

"And you could make another Hollywood star," Kozlov replied.

Tokyo Beauty New Miss Universe: US Girl Is Runner-Up

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—The pearl crown of Miss Universe rested today on the pretty head of a statuesque fashion model from Japan, the first Oriental to win the international beauty pageant.

The announcement Friday night that leggy Akiko Kojima, 22, had won the coveted crown, brought a roar of applause from the 4,300 spectators jammed into Long Beach Memorial Auditorium.

She's So Very Happy "I didn't think I would win," said the Tokyo beauty, who stands 5 feet 6 and measures 37-23-38. "I am oh so very happy," she said in her faltering English and then, as tears glistened beautifully in the corners of her almond eyes, she added: "Thank you very much. Thank you so much."

The runners-up, in order of finish, were: Miss Norway, Jorunn Kristiansen, 18, who stands 5 feet 8 and measures 35-24-35. An aspiring gym teacher, she said she is homesick but may stay in southern California for a movie test in Hollywood.

Miss United States, Terry Lynn Huntington, 19, Mount Shasta, Calif. She's 5 feet 6½ and 36-23-36. The UCLA coed is studying dancing, but she said she may take a fling at the movies on the (Continued on Page 3, Col. 3)

'Blacked Out,' Says Man Charged With Torturing 3

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—"Suddenly the room began swirling, and I blacked out. . . I lost my head. . . I don't know what happened."

Joseph Noah, 39, told police he could remember nothing in connection with the alleged abuse and torture a young mother said he inflicted on her and her two daughters for four days.

"He tortured me with a cigar, then he picked on the children," Mrs. Renate Helbling told police Friday after she had managed to bolt from the house in the University section where she had lived with Noah.

The blonde, 21-year-old sobbed as she accused Noah of beating her with a blackjack and his fists and burning her with a lighted cigar.

Mrs. Helbling said the tortures began four days ago when Noah accused her of having an affair with another man.

"It was a lie," she said. "He knew it was a lie."

Mrs. Helbling, who said her husband is living in Germany, told police she met Noah in a restaurant about seven months ago. She and her two daughters moved in with Noah and his four-year-old daughter four months ago, she said.

Police said Noah was separated from his wife and four of his five children were living in a foster home.

The POWER of FAITH

by Howard Brodie

No white man had dared approach the camp of Sitting Bull for four years. Then "Black Robe," Father Pierre-Jean de Smet, started out from Fort Rice in 1868 on a peace mission. Others feared for his life, but he loved Indians and they loved him. Sixteen days later his party neared the Yellowstone River camp. As Sitting Bull and 400 warriors rode out to greet them, a holy flag bearing the name of Jesus was unfurled above the party. Supposing it was a soldiers' flag, the Indians circled the mission until they saw it was a flag of peace.

The Sioux shook hands and sang. Tears of joy streamed down "Black Robe's" face. He was welcomed to the camp of 5,000 and spoke in council: "Friends, I have been trying to see you and through the help of God, I now have that pleasure . . . in the name of the Great Spirit, of all good, I beseech you to bury all your animosities . . . The flag is the holy emblem of peace . . . I will leave it as a token of good wishes . . . It is to Him you must look for all blessings . . ."

"Black Robe" blessed children, baptized some Indians, told Bible stories and presented Sitting Bull with a cross. There was peace for eight years.

Will Be Guest At Clinton Avenue Church Sunday

REV. ROBERT A. GEVERT

The guest preacher Sunday at Clinton Avenue Methodist Church, 122 Clinton Avenue, at the 10 a. m. service will be the Rev. Robert A. Gevert, pastor of the Margaretville Methodist Church.

The Rev. Mr. Gevert was born in Beachlake, Wayne County, Pennsylvania. A graduate of Hawley (Pennsylvania) High School, he attended Muhlenberg College, Allentown, Pa., receiving the Bachelor of Arts degree in 1949. He took his graduate work in theology at Drew University, Madison, N. J. and was granted the Bachelor of Divinity degree in the spring of 1952. During World War 2 the Rev. Mr. Gevert was in service with the U. S. Marine Corps. He was overseas for two years and saw action in the occupation of Bougainville and in the consolidation of the Northern Solomons.

The Rev. Mr. Gevert's present responsibilities in the New York Annual Conference of the Methodist Church include: chairman of the Division on Temperance and Social Relations; director of General Church School Work of the Kingston District; member of both the Conference and Kingston District Boards of Ministerial Training and Qualifications; of the Conference Board of Education, of the Kingston District Committee on Stewardship, of the Conference Committee on Insurance, and of the Inter-Board Council. While in college, the Rev. Mr. Gevert was a member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Fraternity of the Philosophical Society, and of the M Club—a club for pre-theological students.

Married to Miriam Pauline Heydt, the Geverts have one son, Robert Charles, born in 1945.

The subject of the sermon by the Rev. Mr. Gevert at the service tomorrow morning will be: "Faculties Trained by Practice." The music for the service will be provided by the Chancel Choir under the direction of Anthony Hummel. The public is invited to attend.

FCC Orders Cut In Tolls of Some Distance Calls

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rates for some long distance phone calls will be cut soon under federal order. The annual reduction will total about 50 million dollars.

The Federal Communications Commission ordered the reduction Friday. It would apply to interstate phone calls over a distance of more than 300 miles.

American Telephone and Telegraph Co., which protested the order, said it expected to introduce the reductions in mid-September.

Saving Not Known
The amount of money a caller will save on a single phone call is not known. The company and its affiliates will have to file new rate schedules before that can be determined.

Frederick R. Kappel, president of AT&T, deplored the commission order. "I believe this action ignores the long-range interests of the public," he said. "Right now, we need to spend millions to make the quality of our service still better, add the facilities needed for growth, and enlarge and strengthen the communications network for national defense," Kappel added.

Celler Commends Order
Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-N.Y.), chairman of the House judiciary subcommittee on antitrust matters, said "The FCC is to be commended" for the order.

Celler called the cut "a significant step in carrying out a major recommendation of the antitrust subcommittee in its report issued in May 1959."

The subcommittee had stated that long distance phone users were overcharged 139 million dollars in the 1955-58 period.

Last Change 6 Years Ago
The FCC, which said it has kept the telephone company's rate-cutting activities under review, announced that the reductions would be made "as a result of discussions initiated by the commission."

The last change in interstate phone rates was made almost six years ago, when the FCC allowed the Bell system to increase its charges by about 8 per cent. This brought AT&T a net increase after federal income taxes, of 30 million dollars a year.

Health for All

JACK SPRATT AND FAT

We're willing to bet that Jack Spratt, who ate no fat, outlived his wife, who, if you remember, ate no lean. While they both licked the plate clean, Jack, who kept his boyish figure, staved off arteriosclerosis, and avoided a heart attack. Mother Goose doesn't say, but Mrs. Spratt was probably overweight and may very well have had a fatal heart seizure when she was comparatively young.

Jack wasn't so very smart in avoiding fats completely—but he was smarter than the missus. Actually, the whole story about fats in the diet isn't known yet. But the evidence seems to point to time for a change in the American diet.

The change should be one of balance, shifting from hard fats of animal origin to cooking oils of vegetable origin, from whole milk to skimmed milk (at least for grownups), from fatty cheese to cottage cheese, from rich gravies and ice cream to plainer, simpler food.

High-fat diets, doctors say, increase the danger of blood clots, the commonest cause of heart attacks. We know about this partly from observing diabetics. In the days before the use of insulin, when over-eating was frequent among diabetics, hardening of the arteries was common even among diabetic children.

The body manufactures cholesterol—which has been linked to hardened arteries and heart disease—from fats of animal origin, called saturated fats. You can't and shouldn't avoid animal fats completely, but if you're a housewife, try cooking oils of vegetable origin, containing unsaturated fats, like corn, cottonseed, peanut, and olive oils.

Americans used to get an estimated 39 per cent of their daily calories in fats; now they get 40 per cent from fats. A reduction to 25 per cent—half animal fat and half vegetable oils—would be smart. You don't have to give up milk and meat and eggs altogether. But you and your family will be healthier if you cut down on the fats—and you'll stay lean, too.

matter of FACT

There are 17 species of penguin, all having the same general family traits. The emperor penguin is quite rare, but the king and the johnny penguins are among the best-known species. Penguins vary in size from 16 inches to four feet in height. Their wings are useless for flight but are used for swimming and diving.

Consumers Keep

tors and Studebaker-Packard turned in glowing reports. Ford's profit for the first six months this year was $2,554,300,000—highest in the company's history. Chrysler netted $8 million dollars, a dramatic performance when contrasted with the red ink figure of $25,239,802 posted a year ago. General Motors, due to report its earnings in the next few days, was expected to make an even better showing.

More than 125,000 new cars rolled off the assembly lines this week, against only 85,519 in the same week of recession 1958.

Signs of growing confidence among consumers showed up in the sales reports of companies making glass, chemicals, furniture, appliances, swimming pools, food products, shoes, cigarettes, textiles and apparel.

The National Swimming Pool Institute said current orders indicate that Americans will buy 70,000 pools this year.

Textiles Get Lift
Renewed consumer interest in apparel gave the long dormant textile industry its biggest lift since the war-inspired boom of 1951. Burlington Industries Inc., the nation's largest textile producer, said its sales this year are expected to hit a new high of more than 800 million dollars, against 651 millions in 1958.

The week brought new signs of upturn in the depression-plagued railroad industry. The Pennsylvania Railroad, which lost $25,353,012 in the first half of 1958, reported a profit of $6,298,659 for the like 1959 period. The New York Central, which also lost more than 25 millions in the first six months last year, chalked up a six-month net of $10,128,634.

Orders for new freight cars bounded ahead sharply. Freight carloadings lagged last week because of the steel tie-up. Even so they were higher than in the same week last year when there was no steel strike.

When consumer appetites for cars, homes, appliances, food and textiles are high, the railroads keep busy. They move both raw materials and finished consumer goods.

Stock sales in the latest week totaled 14,785,280 shares against 15,557,890 shares in the previous week and 18,881,325 in the same week last year. Total value of the week's sales was $26,019,500. In the latest week compared to $25,062,200 of the previous week and $24,856,000 in the corresponding 1958 week.

Two Forces May Hurt

Two forces that may blunt the sharp edge of the consumer spending upturn came into clearer focus this week. Their names had a dismally familiar ring—creeping inflation and rising taxes.

Living costs inched up last month. It was a small advance—only four-tenths of one per cent in the government's consumer price index—but it was the largest rise in more than a year.

The latest index, at a new high of $124.50, means that it now costs you $124.50 to buy what $100 would have bought in 1947-49.

Prices of fresh fruits and vegetables climbed, as they usually do in June. Other important family budget items moved up, too—rent, gasoline, medical care, used cars, cigarettes, shoes and haircuts.

Don't look for an early reduction in your federal income tax. President Eisenhower said this week that the huge national debt will have to be trimmed before any thought can be given to tax cuts. The debt now stands at more than 289 billion dollars. The interest costs U.S. taxpayers nearly $4 billion a year.

The steel strike this week had almost everybody guessing. Iron Age, the authoritative trade magazine that speaks for the steel industry, said it looks like a long strike unless President Eisenhower intervenes.

Business in Brief

Briefly over the business scene: White House economists estimate that gross national product—the sum total of all business activity—reached a record yearly pace of 483.1 billion dollars in the second quarter. . . . Department store sales in the first week of the steel strike were up seven per cent from a year ago. . . . Personal income of Americans in June reached a record annual rate of nearly 389 billion dollars. . . . Mrs. Eisenhower christened the nation's first atomic-powered merchant ship, the N.S. Savannah. . . . Stock of Neiman-Marcus Co. was offered to the public for the first time and found plenty of buyers at $19.50 a share. The company operates high-fashion stores in Dallas and Houston. . . . Sears Roebuck & Co. spent a record $48,650,000 on newspaper advertising last year. . . . North American Aviation Inc. is developing two new high-flying jets for the Air Force—they'll fly more than 2,000 miles an hour at 70,000 feet. . . . The world's biggest indoor clock is being installed in New York's Grand Central Terminal by the Western Union division of General Time Corp. The face is 15 feet in diameter; the minute hand 7 1/2 feet long.

Torrential Rains
Minor but widespread damage was reported at the fishing and industrial center of Freeport, 40 miles to the southwest.

Torrential rains, up to 6 or 7 inches at Galveston, fell throughout the coastal area. One shrimp boat and two other smaller craft were reported in trouble. A distress call from one unidentified vessel reported a fuel tank has broken loose and the crew feared an explosion.

Galveston, where a hurricane took 8,000 lives in 1900, is protected by a sturdy system of seawalls.

As much as 15 inches of rain was forecast in extreme southeast Texas and southwest Louisiana.

Asleep at Wheel
Stoutenburgh was proceeding south on Route 213 in Rifton when he fell asleep at the wheel about 2:15 a. m., ran off the right side of the road, down an embankment, through trees, turned over and plunged off a rock cliff into 20 feet of water.

Stoutenburgh slipped through a window of his 1954 sedan, swam to the surface and reached the shore.

He reportedly walked to his home not far away, then collapsed from shock. He was taken to Benedictine Hospital where he was treated for bruises of the chest and knee.

The Dutchess county sheriff's office observed a vehicle operated by a young man traveling north on Route 9 just south of Poughkeepsie.

Goes Through Roadblock
When deputies attempted to stop the car, however, the driver stepped on the gas. Deputies gave chase, radioing the Poughkeepsie Police Department. The young man drove right through Poughkeepsie, however, continuing north on Route 9.

The sheriff's office radioed to the Rhinebeck state police who set up a roadblock but the fleeing vehicle, proceeding at a high rate of speed, ignored and went through the block.

Fire Shots at Car
Sheriff's men managed to stop the car near Barrytown in northern Dutchess County, firing several shots into the rear of the vehicle.

Sheriff Fred Close said the operator was John E. Thornton, 15, of 214 Riverdale Avenue, Yonkers, who had stolen the vehicle from a Yonkers street. The car was owned by Howard McCullough of that city.

Also in the youth's possession was a type of switchblade knife. Close said police reported that the young man was being sought by Westchester County authorities. He eluded a probation officer of that county earlier this year while en route to Grasslands Hospital for psychiatric examination and had been hiding in Yonkers since that time.

He was picked up originally for four alleged burglaries in Yonkers.

Held for Yonkers Police
Close said he told them he stole the car in an effort to reach the Catskills where he hoped to obtain work.

He was being held this morning for Yonkers police.

While the chase was underway in Dutchess County, the sheriff's office there called Kingston police and requested a roadblock at the west side of the Kingston-Rhinecliff Bridge. Dispatched to Flatbush Avenue Extension, where the roadblock was set up were Sergeant Julius Glassman and Patrolmen John Crespin, Sheldon O'Rourke and James Amato. After the youth was captured, local police were notified and policemen removed the roadblock and resumed their regular assignments.

Jailer Wesley O'Brien of the Ulster County sheriff's office was on his way to the courthouse this morning when he observed an accident on Route 28 near the Thurax entrance and stopped to investigate.

The accident involved cars operated by Paul Shultis, 19, of Willow, and Walter J. Bollenbach, 49, of Box 32, Shady. Both cars were traveling in an easterly direction.

Two Suffer Injuries

Mylo Houge of Shultis Corners, a passenger in the Shultis car, suffered injuries of the face and left leg, and Paul Shultis injuries of the chest and right leg.

The Bollenbach car stopped on a signal from a sentinel of the New York Army National Guard but Shultis failed to see the signal and smashed into the rear of the Bollenbach vehicle, it was reported.

Think It Through

E. F. HUTTON
THE UNKNOWN SOLDIERS

We don't thank God enough. We thank Him, at least on Thanksgiving Day, and most of us on Sundays, for food, friends, home and loved ones.

Compared with God's soldiers, little do we owe to armies and policemen for guarding our homes. And how much to God and Mother Nature! And not only to the good brown earth and cloud and rain, without which our daily bread would not exist.

These are friendly things. But encircling every home are millions of enemies, and they, in turn, face millions of unknown soldiers, in two great armies, defending us.

One of these armies is, of course, the birds—robins, chickadees, woodpeckers, crows, even starlings! They help keep the insect hordes from annihilating all human life by starvation. But the birds are not enough. They would be overwhelmed without their allies—the spiders.

The "Aramco World," published by the Arabian American Oil Company, tells a fascinating story of "our fabulous friend, the spider." That spiders are friendly folks will be news to my women readers especially.

But "if there were no spiders, we'd starve to death within weeks." Scientists estimate that the weight of insects eaten every year by spiders is greater than the combined weight of all human beings on this globe! What a war is this!

Spiders never deliberately attack anyone, nor eat useful crops. Tread gently, then, when you see a beautiful web on your lawn, sparkling in morning dew.

Supply Contracts Awarded by BofE

New Paltz Central School Board held its regular meeting this week. Bids were considered on school supplies, and a contract was awarded to Breyer's Ice Cream Company for ice cream, and Meadow Valley School Farm for milk.

All the bids for fuel, bread and rolls were rejected. The board will advertise for bids on these items.

Postmaster Clifford Van Valkenburgh, has resigned his position to accept the position offered by the board to teach mathematics in the junior high school.

President of the Board Catherine Jacobson, appointed committees for the year as follows: Insurance committee, Gerald DuBois, chairman, and Charles Van Alst.

Transportation, Charles Van Alst, chairman, and John Ashton Jr., and policy and publicity committees, Walter Dyer, chairman, and Dr. William J. Hagney.

Education and salary, George Langwick, chairman; Robert Leman, Joseph Foley, and Dr. Hagney.

Auditing, John Ashton Jr., chairman, and Joseph Foley.

Building and Grounds, Walter Dyer, chairman; Gerald DuBois, Robert Donnan and George Langwick.

The board approved the transportation contract with Frank Van Gons for the year sum of $53,270.02, which is $1,320 less than last year due to the use of the two auxiliary buses bought by the district. Bus routes were also approved.

The board approved the advancement of Mrs. Marjorie Glenn from step A1 to step A2, on the salary schedule since she has completed her Master's Degree.

Mrs. Jacobson appointed Robert Donnan chairman, and Walter Dyer as a committee to consider the request from 19 of the League of Women Voters to set up election districts.

Dippel read a letter from the Home Economics Department stating that Mrs. Esther Winkky has been elected leader of the Ulster County Home Making Teacher's group, which entitles her to receive $100. The board moved to make arrangements for Mrs. Winkky to receive this amount and also commended her for this honor.

Business Spotlight Now Shines on Consumers

BY FAYE HENLE

The business spotlight shines on you!

While economic indexes are beginning to register seasonal doldrums, the thinking and planning of business leaders revolves upon outguessing how you the consumer will behave in the months ahead.

Careful studies of your past and present behavior have been made. Your actions, spending-wise, have been related to the spending action of government and industry and the conclusion drawn.

Whether business for the rest of this year will fulfill earlier anticipations of record-breaking levels now depends almost entirely on you. This is why.

Government expenditures since the low of the recession, have gained almost 10 per cent, injecting that much steam into total recovery—compared with less than 1 per cent growth in the comparable period of the 1954-55 downturn. There is pressure on the government currently to slow down spending.

Because of uncertainties laboring in the steel industry, spending for inventory accumulations exceed that of the 1954-55 downturn. This problem is now being solved.

Your spending for durables, nondurables and services has been slower than it was following the 1954-55 recession. Slower, too, has been spending for residential construction and by industry for plant and equipment. This latter now is rising.

Thus, because the forces that pushed the economy to high levels during the first half of the would be thirty cents per meal or $1.25 per lunch ticket. It also approved a tuition charge for non-resident students picking up working papers.

Permission was granted Frank Hamilton to attend the 15th annual Institute for School Board Clerks in Syracuse from August 10 to 12.

A petition was received from residents of Common School District No. 4, Town of Gardiner, requesting a special meeting regarding the disposition of the Tuthilltown Schoolhouse. The board authorized Peter Harp to proceed with this matter after August 10.

It was voted to borrow on five notes of $7000 each at 3 1/2 per cent interest from the Huguenot Bank as authorized by the voters at the annual meeting, for the new building.

Retired Congressman Addressed GOP Club

Jay LeFevre, retired Congressman, was speaker of the evening at the July meeting of the New Paltz Republican Club.

His topic was the unofficial Republican convention held recently in Kingston.

New Paltz sent 12 delegates this year. LeFevre said that the year candidates for the office of surrogate, coroner and county sheriff were to be nominated as well as two members of the Ulster County Republican committee from each election district.

During the business meeting President Thomas McKinney appointed Mrs. David Jewett Jr., as chairman of the refreshment committee. Reports were received from the picnic and membership committees.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting to the 50 members present.

Gail Park Betrothal Announced by Mother

The engagement of Gail B. Park to John W. Logan was announced last week by Mrs. Robert Park, widow of Robert H. Park, New Paltz.

Mr. Logan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Logan of Poughkeepsie is also a graduate of State University Teachers College here. Mr. Logan will attend State Teachers College, Albany in the fall for graduate work.

The couple plan to be married on August 22 in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, New Paltz.

factor's too.

Today it may be a matter of a pretty synthetic cycle of high sales and lessened profits. Competition is sharpening among the makers and sellers of every type of product to make your spending compensate for the lower July clearances. By September-December we might be operating participation anticipated from government and industry.

Killed by Train

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. (AP)—Robert S. Weatherly, 45, of Niagara Falls, was struck and killed by a Lehigh Valley Railroad freight train at the Third Street crossing today.

With larger paychecks, the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia points out, your spending has outpaced the increase in our national product. GNP is the economists' lingo for all the goods and services this nation produces. Despite your larger income, because of higher prices, you are not saving any more now than you did six years ago, though your savings may be taking a different form.

Will your spending really benefit the economy as much as some think that it will? I wonder.

I've a hunch from just peering at a tiny sector of Main Street U.S.A. that many a shopkeeper is aware of the need of sacrificing his profit margin in order to keep you the consumer coming back for more, in order to move the load of goods manufacturers are shipping into his store. If, as a result of higher labor costs and already a host of silent wage hikes have been granted, prices continue upward, I fear an even greater strain on the retailer's profit and perhaps on the manu-clusion of the discussion it was stated that the difficulties would apparently be "ironed out" shortly.

Former Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy of Kingston presented a letter from the state comptroller on the question of attendance of fire equipment at parades. The comptroller's letter stated that a piece of fire fighting equipment could be sent to a parade provided equipment was left at the station to cover the area and also after permission from the fire commissioners had been obtained.

Chief Edward Mains of Port Ewen gave a report on fire prevention for the past year.

Ulster County Fire Coordinator Snyder reported 61 mobile radio units had been installed and 60 monitor receiving units had been placed, and as soon as possible the county-wide fire radio service would be placed in operation. He reported power wires and equipment had been installed on Little Tonawanda Mountain and the installation process was rapidly reaching the point where the system could be put in service.

Membership at 889

A membership of 889 to date was reported by Secretary Harder and 71 fire companies are members of the county association.

Among the deaths of members of the Association which have been reported during the past year are Archie Van Benschoten of Mt. Marion-Ruby Fire Company; Joseph S. Disch of Weiner Hose Company; John A. Flannery of Twaalfskill Hose Company; Ted Kolb of Cornell Hose Company; Arthur K. Rice of West Hurley Fire Company; Orville Carney of Port Ewen Fire Department, and John Ostrander of Hurley Fire Company. The Rev. Mr. Shultis held a short memorial service in honor of these men.

Tilston Men Join

Two applications for membership were received and approved. The new members are John Shults and George Popp, both of Tilston.

The next meeting of the association will be as guests of Shandaken-Albany Fire Department at Shandaken in August. The meeting adjourned and Parade Chairman James Hicks announced that refreshments would be served by the Ladies Auxiliary of Tilston Fire Company.

KINGSTON, NEW YORK, JULY 25, 1959

THE ART OF COYNESSE

Though Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller holds important public office, he is rather new at the game of politics. Judging by his response to questions on a recent television interview program, he is learning rapidly.

Rockefeller has already become adept at the political art of being coy about ambition for higher office. The practitioner of this art must appear to be intent solely on doing the best possible job at his present desk, but through his intentness there must shine a hint of willingness to respond to the people's call.

New York's new governor demonstrated the art for the TV audience. One panelist recalled Rockefeller's remark before entering the New York gubernatorial race, "If there is an opportunity for me to render really useful service by running, then my decision will be to do it," and asked whether this would apply also to the presidential race.

Did Rockefeller say yes, or no? He did not. He didn't even utter what might be described as an unequivocal maybe. What he said was: "Well, should the circumstances develop—as they have not to date developed, in my opinion — then maybe what you say in giving my quote might apply."

What circumstances did Governor Rockefeller have in mind? Your guess is as good as ours. Maybe he just means he could be persuaded.

In the meantime New York State Chairman L. Judson Morhouse has been securing pledges from key Republican leaders of the state to support the Governor for the Presidential nomination in 1960. Morhouse also is working on out-of-state operations.

Attorney General Lefkowitz also has done some spadework at a recent national meeting of state attorneys general in New Orleans.

SNACKS IN THE NIGHT

Quincy Blankenship, 10 pounds heavier than he wants to be, is a staunch believer in the use of will power to deal with such situations. Quincy starts his days in a burst of heroism, breakfasting lightly on unbuttered toast and a boiled egg. There are days when, moved beyond the call of duty, he also lunches sparingly or eschews the noonday meal altogether. Resultant mid-riff pangs are allayed by the conviction that progress is being made.

Come dinner time, Quincy lets himself go a bit. After all, a slim breakfast and no lunch at all have given him some leeway. So Quincy has a second pork chop and another helping of mashed potatoes; Quincy imbibes deeply of sugar iced tea; Quincy has a scoop of vanilla on his apple pie.

By bedtime, all these good things are but memories. Quincy makes himself a sandwich and tops it off with the last piece of that pie. A man has to have something to sustain him through the long night hours.

Quincy can't understand why that 10 pounds clings to his frame with such tenacity. You'd think, he moans, that when a man starves himself all day long he ought to lose weight like butter in the sun.

Quincy Blankenship is going to see a doctor. He thinks maybe it's his glands. Maybe it is.

BETTER THAN 'REGRETS'

Auditors of a recent NBC news broadcast were shocked to hear an incident of rowdism such as is seldom exposed to the public ear. Reporters were questioning David J. McDonald, president of the Steelworkers' union, about the steel strike just begun. One of them impiously asked if McDonald's personal standing in the union was in any way dependent on the outcome of the strike.

Some men in McDonald's entourage promptly seized the reporter's camera and demanded that the incident be deleted from the record.

'These Days'

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY
THE POLITICIAN'S DISEASE

The excuse that politicians, of all countries, including business politicians and labor politicians and all sorts of so-called wise and practical persons give for saying what they do not mean, of doing in public what they eschew privately, is that it is the only way to remain in office. It is as true in one country as in another. The disgraceful purges in Soviet Russia when men who had devoted themselves to the ideals of revolution rose to denounce and defame themselves in the hope that "confession" would save their jobs for them, shocked the world. But as we look about the world of our day we always see men and women who twist and squirm in order to conform to whatever is currently popular.

Boris Pasternak, in a very eloquent passage in "Doctor Zhivago," wrote:
"... The great majority of us are required to live a life of constant, systematic duplicity. Your health is bound to be affected if, day after day, you say the opposite of what you feel if you grovel before what you dislike and rejoice at what brings you nothing but misfortune. Our nervous system isn't just a fiction, it's a part of our physical body, and our soul exists in space and is inside us, like the teeth in our mouth. It can't be forever violated with impunity. . . ."

How very true this is!
Recently, I have been asking the question: What is news? Surely, we all know the answer to that. News is when Zsa Zsa Gabor does something exciting. News is when Rita Hayworth takes a new husband. News is when Elsa Maxwell gives a party at El Morocco. Or is it?

Back in the fortunate days of the beginning of this century when the world had general peace since 1815, it was news that some rich man gave a dinner for horses and a dining hall of a fashionable hotel was turned into a stable. Does anyone care about such nonsense today? Young folks would call it corny.

Interests change. They have changed in the direction of the challenge, "Where do I get off?" If you have a marriageable daughter, ask her what is the most exciting question before her? Ask her if it is not whether her marriage must be postponed because her boyfriend has to spend two to three years in the armed forces?

Or ask the young man just out of college who has discovered that a B.A. degree has become downgraded; that he requires at least an M.A. to become an engineer or a business executive in scientific industries. He was in the ROTC and got a deferment because he is a smart boy, but now he must go into the armed services. He figures that maybe he can risk marriage while in the armed services, but what will he do when he gets out? Will he have to take refresher courses?

In the old days, a fellow might start a small business in a new and growing community, but these days, it seems smarter and more secure to get to work for a big firm. Security has become tremendously important in young lives, although not half a century ago, risk and ambition were regarded as the better mixture for success. However, today it is security and from the fellow at the very bottom of the totem pole to the man who sits at the very top, everybody thinks in terms of fringe benefits.

The young man feels that he has taken all the risks he cares to when he went into the armed services; now he will work to get security. He hopes one day to get a job with a big expense account. A careful manipulator can do a big share of his living on the untaxed expense account; or, if possible, to become an executive and to get stock options which are an excellent form of security.

If the stock stands, the young man is concerned about security because they are frightened about the future. Many of them marry young, figuring that if they both work, they can establish a home. But one trouble with that is that industrial companies are scattered all over the Earth and who can tell where one will have to move to?

In a changing world, it is youth that is anxious and it is youth that makes all the changes. (Copyright, 1959, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

The Mature Parent
Unmarried Children Usually
Made to Care for Parents

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Commenting on a recent column, a reader who signs herself "Old Maid" writes: "It's usually the unmarried child who ends up with the responsibility for old parents. Married ones find excuses. Old people's homes are crowded because there aren't enough single children around to look after our aged population."

I felt that "Old Maid" had something. And after checking with a friend whose work is placement in homes for aged, I found she thought so, too.

But unmarried children who find themselves exploited by married ones have only themselves to blame. They're so ashamed of their single state that they become easy victims to the married brothers and sisters who say, "We are so important to our own families that we just can't take any more responsibility. You're not important to anyone. So you are the person to take care of our parents."

Actually behind this plea of too much responsibility is resentment of it. The married children think this way:

"Jane has nobody to please but herself while I have to please my wife or husband and youngsters. . . ."

"Jim has nobody to spend his money on but himself while my family's demands on me leave me with little. . . ."

But though this is what they think, they do not say, "We are really just jealous of your freedom." Instead they use words like "duty" and "selfishness" to deprive the single child of his freedom. The single child promptly reacts to them like old fire hoses to the sound of the alarm bell.

He often accepts not just the whole responsibility for physical care but for financial support of his parents.

Just as he once needed to show his brothers and sisters that he could spit as far as they could, he now needs to show them that he can be as self-sacrificing as they are.

Because married brothers and sisters are jealous of the single child's freedom is no reason to spare them their share of a common responsibility.

The single child needs to stop feeling apologetic for his singleness. He needs to stand up in family council and say: "We are all important to ourselves. Only with this truth established can we plan justly and co-operatively to work out this obligation together."

the record. The reporter refused to back down. McDonald's companions smashed the equipment and removed the offending film.

They made one mistake; they forgot about the tape recorder. Thus it was that the public could listen in on the interchange that led to the camera-smashing.

McDonald issued a statement expressing "deep regret" about the incident. He might better have prevented his aides from taking such action in the first place. No one in public life—and that certainly applies to the head of one of the nation's most powerful unions—has any right to resort to violence over legitimate questions asked by representatives of a free press.

"If It Isn't One Thing It's Another"

Washington News

By JERRY BENNETT
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA) — One prominent speaker—who shall be nameless—at a Defense Department sponsored briefing the other day insisted the United States has nothing to worry about in its military and economic competition with the Soviet Union.

"The nation that invented bourbon whisky is not going to be outdone by any Soviet scientific advances," he insisted. He was cheered by his military audience, including the teetotallers.

REP. CRAIG HOSMER (R-Calif.) asked for permission the other day to extend his remarks in the minutes. That is, he wanted to have one of his speeches—not given on the floor of the House—printed in the back of the Congressional Record.

As is usual, permission was granted. Here is Craig Hosmer's speech in full:

"Stop Flops Drop Crop Props."

Explains Hosmer, "That's all I had to say."

POSTMASTER General Arthur Summerfield has what he calls a "Chamber of Horrors" in one of his private offices. He has—behind drapes and locked doors—a collection of some of the nude pictures that go through the mails these days.

Summerfield takes selected Congressmen back to the room, uses his "horror" exhibit of nude pictures and other "trash" to convince the legislators they've got to pass some sort of a bill to put a stop to the business.

P.S.: As a clincher, the postmaster general will show a select movie—sent through the mails—to a reluctant Congressman.

"After seeing that movie," says one visitor, "I was ready to vote whatever Art wanted to get this sort of thing out of circulation."

NEWEST CASUALTY of the space age: Washingtonians are reporting fewer and fewer "flying saucers." So are Americans generally.

In fact the Air Force reports that in the past six months, only 143 Americans reported seeing these mysterious "interplanetary" or "interstellar" space ships. That's a big comedown from the 296 reported the previous year.

It turned out that 5 per cent of the space ships were balloons and 45 per cent stars.

The Air Force, however, doesn't explain 20 per cent — says there were insufficient data. Some Washingtonians are sure that at least some of these were actual ships from some place in space. The Air Force is just as certain some of these were birds, some searchlights, some hoaxes, and none space ships.

MONKEYS ARE a big bone of contention these days between Rep. John Moss (D-Calif.) and the Defense Department.

Moss contends everybody ought to know about the monkeys the Department is using in space research. Defense says giving out this information would be against the national defense—would aid communism—and injure U. S. security.

Turns out that some kinds of monkeys are an object of worship by some peoples in other parts of the world. Departments of State and Defense don't want to hurt feelings or get some people angry. Hence the secrecy.

Moss is up in arms because he has found that the Soviets import monkeys regularly from India, make no secret about it,

P.S. When the U. S. did actually send some monkeys up in space recently — Able and Baker — officials made certain these were genuine American monkeys that would hurt no one's feelings.

RUSSIAN EMBASSY partygoers are distressed about a rumor that the Kremlin may order them to swear off betting at Maryland race tracks. Reason is that playing the horses has taken the Soviet Union by storm and is causing no end of trouble.

Typical example is that of a young party member who was caught picking pockets to cover his track losses. Another case snatched one million rubles from his boss's till to pay off a bookie.

It's reported that Kremlin brass are so incensed that they have denounced Commie bookies as "corrupters of youth and inducers of base feelings."

FAVORITE DISH at a recent Pakistan Embassy reception was a meat ball concoction originated by Press Secretary S. M. Haq.

The meat balls, which were about the size of marbles, were flavored with mint and ginger and served with a chili sauce dip.

Haq served them piping hot to guests from an electric broiler which he set up in an adjacent office.

BABSON PARK, Mass., July 24

—Before explaining these four programs let me impress upon readers the importance of not mixing the programs. Each has its advantages and disadvantages. Hence you should select one and stick to it. This advice is based on over 54 years of experience in the "school of hard knocks and hard work."

INVESTING BY THE CYCLE. Program No. 1 calls for selling at a time like this and depositing the money received in a bank, waiting for the next big break which will come some day surely come. Then you will again buy the most active good stocks and hold them until another bull market comes; then follow the same plan over again. This is the most profitable program for those with courage and patience.

THE LONG-GROWTH COMMON STOCK PROGRAM. No. 2 provides that investors pay no attention to stock market prices but purchase a little "long-growth" stock every few months as they have the money, keeping these stocks for a long time. This is satisfactory if the advisor makes sound selections. When, however, companies are young, it is difficult to know what they will be when they "grow up."

As an illustration, I am listing the names of some such stocks which were bought, in accordance with Program No. 2, by an intelligent Boston stock broker for his children and grandchildren.

THESE STOCKS ARE NOW VALUELESS. Amalgamated Gold Dredging Co.; Black Diamond Anthracite Coal; Boston Mining & Exploration; California Fortune Oil; Deadwood Standard Gold Mining & Milling; Dewdney Gold Mining; Eastern Kentucky Oil; Goldfield Mutual Prospecting & Developing; Hidden Fortune Mining Co.; Invenible Gold Mining; Mount Glines Gold & Silver Mining Co.; Old Mexico Mining & Milling; Santa Ana Tin Mining and Spearfish Gold Mining & Reduction Co.

BUYING GOOD STOCKS AND CUMULATIVE PREFERRED STOCKS FOR INCOME ONLY. With Program No. 3 you would not sell your stocks in a high market, but would wait for a lower market before buying others. This program is very suitable for older people.

THE FOURFOLD SYSTEM. Program No. 4 is the one I like best, combining profit, income and security. Such an investor today would have one third of his money in good common stocks as an inflation hedge; one third of his funds in bonds or good cumulative preferred stocks for income; and one third in cash, waiting for a break in the market. Thus, whatever happens, he would be able to take advantage of any future market situation. Although I am not strong for Program No. 1, I feel that Program No. 2 is dangerous and that it is wrong to ignore the "ups and downs" of the stock market.

CONCLUSION: During the more than 54 years that I have been studying the stock market, I have seen it go through three wars, four panics, and five booms. Although I admire young men for their courage and initiative, I think that investors should always consult both young men and old men. The younger men think that we are continually entering "new eras" and that panics can never occur again. Then they are bearish too long when the country is in a depression.

Older men, however, know that ever since there have been any reliable records — wars, business, investments, and even nations have moved in cycles. Periods of prosperity have encouraged carelessness, dishonesty, and an unrealistic increase in government, corporation, and personal debt. This has finally resulted in a decline and depression. A depression tends to make people industrious and more anxious to pay up their debts. This results in a period of improvement and another era of prosperity.

Although those who follow Program No. 1 may be unable to pick out the exact high spot of a bull market and the low spot of a bear market, yet they are performing a very important social service. Those who sell when the market is abnormally high tend to make the prosperity era less dangerous; while those who buy during a depression help make that depression less terrible. In other words, those who are wise enough (and there are not too many of these) to successfully follow Program No. 1 tend to level out business, investment, and employment conditions to the benefit of all.

Gala Ball Planned For September by Kingston Power Boat

The committee for the Hudson Celebration Ball, sponsored by the Kingston Power Boat Association, Inc., to be held at the Governor Clinton Hotel on Saturday night, September 26, has engaged the services of Wendell "Speed" Scherer to furnish music for dancing.

General chairman, Charles J. Cole, is now assembling the program for the occasion in time for printing.

Since this is the only Ball listed in the Year of History for 1959 Brochure, it is anticipated that it will be one of the area's outstanding social events.

In conjunction with the Year of History Celebration, the Kingston Power Boat Association, Inc., is also celebrating its 20th anniversary. It was organized on March 2, 1939.

Assisting Mr. Cole with preparations are honorary chairman, County Judge Louis G. Bruhn, and co-chairmen Thomas Feeney, Donald W. Schryver and Jack Feye.

Rhoda Circle Gives Report on Activities

"Rhoda" Circle of the WGCs, Marbletown Reformed Church, Mrs. Edward Coles leader, met at the home of Mrs. Charles Hasbrouck, Stone Ridge, New York, on July 15 at 8 p. m. with Mrs. Robert Fuhr and Mrs. M. Derringer as co-hostesses.

The meeting was opened with devotions led by Mrs. Edward Green with Mrs. Roy Webber, Mrs. Alma Siemer, Mrs. William Brownlie and Mrs. Robert Clementz assisting Mrs. Green in the spiritual life study topic "The Book of Acts." Chapters one to 9. Mrs. Green asked Mrs. Schreiner and Mrs. Derringer to lead the study topic for the September meeting which will be Chapter 2 in the Study Guide.

Mrs. Richard Davenport, educational secretary, led an interesting discussion on ways we could enrich our family life through Christian living.

The picnic, sponsored by Rhoda Circle, held at Tongore Park on June 24, was considered, by all those present, to have been quite successful. Mrs. Coles stated that many favorable reports had come to her attention concerning this non-profit get-together. Miss Edith Newkirk announced that on August 12 the entire WGCs will sponsor a covered dish supper at Tongore Park.

The balance of our meeting was taken over with plans for the Dutch Day Fair on August 5. Rhoda Circle is responsible for decorations, properties and the ever popular Food Table.

Many plans were made, with various individuals taking over the numerous menial jobs that must be accomplished in order to have a successful fair. One of our aims for the Fair this year is to have enough baked goods in order that the food table will be able to remain open through the entire Fair.

Mrs. Robert Fuhr introduced Mrs. Joan Calarosi.

Mrs. and Mrs. Calarosi are new members of the community, having recently moved into the Service Apartments on Route 209.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Robert Fuhr and Mrs. M. Derringer with Mrs. Hasbrouck assisting to the following: Mrs. E. Coles, Mrs. E. Green, Mrs. H. Siemer, Mrs. R. Webber, Mrs. R. Davenport, Mrs. A. Schreiner, Mrs. B. Kelder, Miss Edith Newkirk, Mrs. R. Shumate, Mrs. G. Wager, Mrs. W. Pratt, Mrs. W. Brownlie, Mrs. R. Clementz and Mrs. Calarosi.

The next meeting of Rhoda Circle will be held on September 8 at the home of Mrs. William Pratt on Old King's Highway.

Vanderlyn Council Installs Officers

At a meeting of Vanderlyn Council No. 41, Daughters of America, held recently, the following officers were installed.

Anna Boyce, junior past council and trustee for six months; Ora Nichols, councilor; Luella Giles, associate councilor; Muriel E. Short, conductor; Elizabeth Nichols, warden; Leah W. Jones, recording secretary; Mildred H. Burgher, financial secretary; Elizabeth Arace, assistant recording secretary; Matilda Hahn, assistant financial secretary; Hilda E. Kiefer, treasurer; Elizabeth Whitbeck, outside sentinel; Charlotte Jones, trustee for 18 months.

Those elected representatives to the state session scheduled for September at the Governor Clinton Hotel in New York City are Anna Boyce and Mildred H. Burgher. Alternates are Elizabeth Nichols, Muriel E. Short and Rose Jones.

Luella Craft of Imperial No. 16 of Saugerties and deputy of Vanderlyn Council was the installing officer. She was assisted by Carrie Kier and Goldie Gerhardt, flagbearers. Rose Jones was in charge of regalia.

State officers received were Goldie Gerhardt, past state councilor; Luella Craft, deputy of Vanderlyn Council No. 41; Mildred H. Burgher, deputy of Rondout Valley No. 110 of Ellenville; Matilda Hahn, deputy of Imperial No. 16 of Saugerties.

Installed at a date to be announced will be Effie Rich, associate junior past councilor and representative; Winifred Kieffer, vice councilor; Marjorie Nelson, associate vice councilor and representative; and Nettie Auchmoodie, inside sentinel.

Quarterly reports were read and gifts distributed. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the business meeting.

Good Taste Today

GOING WITHOUT STOCKINGS

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it bad taste for young women to go without stockings to a business office when the legs are deeply tanned? Does it matter that the toes show through the shoes—which in fact would be the only giveaway that stockings are missing. I am not comfortable in close-toed shoes, particularly in hot weather.

Answer: If you wear open-toed shoes, you very certainly must wear stockings. With close-toed shoes and deeply tanned legs, lack of stockings would not be noticed and therefore is permissible.

Sending A Wedding Gift

Dear Mrs. Post: How should one address a wedding gift before the wedding day? And how should the card be signed by a husband and wife; Mary and John Blank or Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Blank?

Answer: A wedding gift should be sent to Miss Mary Maiden-name, and if you have a Mr. and Mrs. visiting card you enclose it or write "Mr. and Mrs." before the engraving on your own card. As a rule, "Best wishes" is written across the top of the card. If you have to use a plain card, then merely the name Mr. and Mrs. John Blank should be written on it or else, "With all best wishes from Mary and John Blank."

Mixed Ages at a Shower

Dear Mrs. Post: I gave a surprise shower for a friend of mine who is soon to be married. I did not invite the bridegroom's mother to the shower and have been severely criticized for not doing so. I have been told that both mothers are always invited to a shower. Will you please tell me if I was wrong?

Answer: If the shower was limited to the bride-to-be's own young friends, it was certainly not necessary to invite the bridegroom's mother. But if other older people were invited she should have been too.

Mrs. Post offers readers leaflets on a variety of subjects concerning etiquette. If you would like to have her leaflet E-16, entitled "Table Rules of Importance," send 10 cents in coin to Dept. E. P., care of The Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail.

MRS. ROOSEVELT VISITS YOUTH CAMP—The highlight of this summer's season for 150 campers and 63 staff members at Pioneer Youth Camp was a visit Wednesday by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, who was very complimentary on changes and improvements made since her last trip in 1945. Touring the camp at Rifton with her are (l-r) Scott Gruher of New York, one of the campers; Dan Friedman of Orangeburg, assistant director; George Lockhart of New York, director of the non-profit, interracial and intersectorian organization. The greatest single event in her life, she told the group, was her participation in the United Nations Declaration of Human Rights. The camp has been in operation for 35 years. At various intervals over that period, Mrs. Roosevelt has entertained Pioneer Youth campers at her home in Hyde Park.

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

No doubt many folks plan to attend the Woodstock Library Fair at the end of July. Again I suggest that all this preparation should not go for just one day's Fair, but should continue into the week-end. Perhaps at least part of the Fair could be kept open for the week-end crowd of visitors.

I notice the Miriam Krom of High Falls saved items on Woodstock from some 20 years back. One item written by Marion Bullard talks about Hervey White returning from the south to Woodstock. In speaking about his famous fireplace, which I remember, she writes in part: "Usually there is a long log sticking out into the room which is shoved in as it burns off at the other end... A savory odor filled the room. Hervey puts rice in the meat loaf also tomatoes and onions. In these times, it was good to contemplate our serene Woodstock philosopher in his own surroundings once again. It gives back one's faith that there can be peace in this world somehow, somewhere." Hervey White was a gentle man. He had a white beard and a good head of white hair and wore sort of white sailor clothes, but not a uniform, mind you, when I knew him. He was a slender man and seemed to tower over other folks in the village. Everybody recognized him. "There goes Hervey White." Everybody liked him no end.

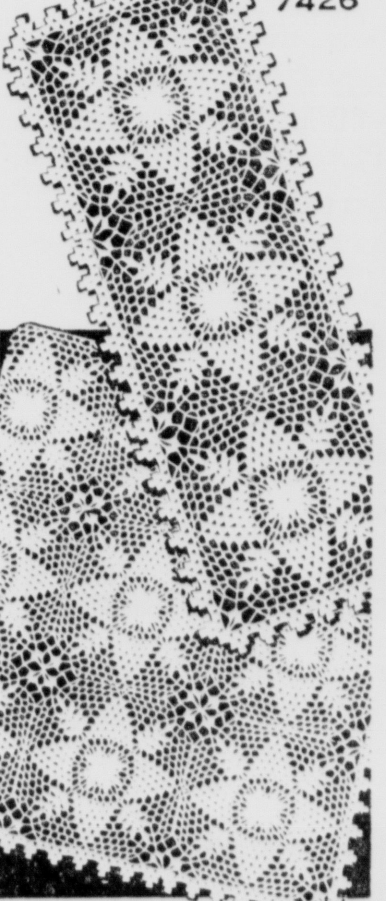

Now with the Stockade being considered a part of the Hudson-Champlain celebration here, I was interested in Miss Krom's collection of old stone house pictures and reference to the stockade. I think these pictures were taken about 1938. They are not dated.

On the Abraham Masten Home it is written: "Before the war, the Masten home and the Senate House served as the northwest corner of the Village Stockade, and the street which is now known as Clinton Avenue was then called East Front Street. On the Dr. Elmendorf Mansion located on Main Street, between Wall and Green Streets, they mention that the house was one of the originals in the stockade which formed the beginning of the town of Kingston. The walls of this house are two feet thick in places. Embedded in the rear wall is part of a tombstone bearing the inscription, 'James C. Elmendorf, Dec. 10, 1854, aged 82 yrs. 9 mo. & 16 ds.'"

These stone houses have withstood 300 years of weather conditions and time and even burning by the British. They were constructed of sturdy material by sturdy men, who were not in a hurry. The Cornelius Van Keuren residence had huge oak beams set directly in the masonry for the floor timber. One could go on and on about these stone houses that are slowly being opened as show places during certain celebrations. People are proud to own them. They will be even more precious as time goes on.

LOCAL GIRL SCHEDULES VISIT—A delegation of six high school students and two teachers, including Wallkill Central School student Janet Marie Dolan, declared winners in a statewide essay contest on the history of the state and the exploration of the Hudson River will fly to Holland Wednesday for a two-week tour of that country and a visit to the famous "Weepers Tower" (above). They will return to New York on August 12. The well-known old tower is called "Schreierstoren" and was built in 1482. It stands at the entrance of the harbor in Amsterdam. It was at the Weepers' Tower that the wives and sweethearts assembled to wave a last farewell to the departing crews of far-sailing Dutch ships. This was the last building which Henry Hudson saw when he began his historic voyage that led to the exploration of the Hudson River 350 years ago.

Requests Heavy For Meeting on Farm Fish Ponds

Due to a large number of requests for assistance on management of farm fish ponds, the Ulster County Agricultural Department has arranged for a meeting at 7 p. m. Tuesday, July 28, at Jenkins & Lueken's Farm on Route 299, New Paltz.

County Agricultural Agent William H. Palmer said Prof. Harlan Brumsted, extension conservationist, Cornell University, would conduct the meeting. He will net some of the fish in the pond to determine what species are present, check population and size.

"This will be the basis for discussion on stocking warm water fish ponds, weed control, safety factors and general management practices," Palmer said.

Douglas Sarr, soil conservation service technician, will be present to discuss farm pond construction. Proper pond construction is basic and should receive high priority in planning farm fish ponds. The actual stocking of fish is secondary at this point, Palmer said.

He explained that sources of fish, species and number to stock will be given for those interested.

The program will take about 2 1/2 hours. In case of rain the meeting will be held in an adjacent building.

The farm is located about half way between New Paltz and the Minnewaska Trail.

Monday May See End of A & P Warehouse Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—A six-week strike of warehouse workers that has closed more than 400 A & P food chain stores may end Monday.

Members of the striking Local 852 of the Teamsters Union are scheduled to act then on a proposed contract.

If the contract is ratified the workers could return to work the same day, according to a union spokesman. It would probably be several days after that before the stores would open, a company spokesman said.

A tentative settlement was reached Friday. Terms of the agreement were not disclosed.

The strike began June 15 when 1,400 warehousemen walked out in a demand for improved wages and fringe benefits.

Thousands of other A & P employees and workers for companies serving the chain were idled when A & P closed its stores in New York City, on Long Island, in lower Connecticut and in Westchester, Rockland, Orange and Putnam counties in New York State.

Champlain Praised As Pioneer, Missionary

CROWN POINT, N. Y. (AP)—Rep. John V. Lindsay (R-N.Y.) today praised Samuel De Champlain as a "pioneer of civilization and a missionary of Christianity."

In a speech prepared for the rededication of a lighthouse honoring Champlain on the shores of the lake he discovered 350 years ago, Lindsay said:

"A true patriot, he served France as nobly as any of her sons. He laid for her the foundation of an empire in the new world which time and vicissitudes may have diminished, but have not ever extinguished."

Lindsay is a member of the commission set up by the federal government to help celebrate the Hudson-Champlain sesquicentennial, the 350th anniversary of the voyages of Champlain and Henry Hudson.

He said the lighthouse rededication should also be a rededication of the peoples of America and France "to that noble principle: two great democracies, thinking and acting in unison."

Those were the words used by the spokesman for the French delegation during the dedication of the lighthouse on May 3, 1912.

MODENA NEWS

MODENA—A sermon on "Void if Detached" will be delivered by George T. Johnson, pastor of Modena and Clintondale Methodist Churches, at worship services Sunday.

Monday the annual sessions of the annual vacation Bible school will commence at the Hasbrouck Memorial Hall. Classes will be conducted Monday through Friday, 9 until 11:45 a. m. through Aug. 7.

A meeting of the commission on education will be held Monday evening at the Modena Methodist Church.

Mrs. George Matheisen and daughter, Christine, accompanied by relatives from New Jersey are on a vacation trip to Niagara Falls and northern New York State.

Robert Harcher was usher at the wedding of Miss Gertrude Harmon, of Poughkeepsie and Storm Nickerson of Newburgh, held at the Holy Trinity Church, Arlington, on July 4.

Miss Glennie Wager visited Mr. and Mrs. John J. Davis at Lloyd on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Moran and family of Lexington, Ky., formerly of Modena, are visiting relatives and friends here. Mr. Moran was transferred to Kentucky by IBM about three years ago.

Miss Marguerite A. Smith visited in Poughkeepsie on Wednesday.

Donald Lare of Gardnertown, is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bernard this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. DeWitt Sr., of New Hurley, formerly of Modena, have returned from a vacation trip through the New England States.

William Eisenhardt has received his discharge from the U. S. Navy, and with Mrs. Eisenhardt, the former Carolee Coy of Modena, is on a vacation trip through the southern states.

Wayne Smith will attend the two-week session at DeBruce Conservation Camp in Sullivan Co. He was selected to attend by Modena Rod and Gun Club, during August.

LOCKPORT, N. Y. (AP)—Mare W. McLaughlin, 6, of nearby Pondion was killed Friday when he was run over by a dump truck as it backed from a neighbor's drive. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McLaughlin.

State Not Paying For Skin Diving, Bridge Education

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—School districts that offer such adult education courses as skin-diving and contract bridge must henceforth make it clear the state is not paying any of the costs.

The State Education Department Friday termed such courses "educationally thin." Future offerings of such courses must be labeled: "Not state-aided."

Adult education courses in recreational fields came under heavy fire in the past year. They were blamed for contributing to the soaring cost of education.

The Education Department explained then that it did not finance such courses and persons taking them usually paid fees.

Some courses in social and recreational activities are eligible for state aid, however, when conducted solely for persons 60 and older.

Plattekill

PLATTEKILL—The Willing Workers Society of Plattekill Methodist Church will hold its annual fair and serve a baked ham supper, family style, at Plattekill Grange Hall Saturday, Aug. 15.

The booths, containing handmade articles and baked goods, will be open during the afternoon, and the supper will be served at 6:30 p. m.

Charles Everett was soloist at the worship service held in the Associate Reformed Church, Newburgh on Sunday, July 19.

The Rev. James A. Brimelow, DD, of Clintondale, pastor of the church, spoke on the subject "The Cross in the Garden."

The subject of the sermon which the Rev. Carl Hartman, pastor of Plattekill and Rossville Methodist Churches, delivered at regular worship services was "The Incarnation of Man."

Mrs. Elmore Lozier will be in charge of a baking contest sponsored by members of the service and hospitality committee of Plattekill Grange to be held Saturday evening, Aug. 8, at the Grange Hall. Articles entered will be yeast bread, rolls, cookies, coffee cake. The date of Saturday, Oct. 3, has been set for the annual fair and supper by Grange members.

Would Lift Clergy To Legal Plane of Doctors, Lawyers

By TOM HENSHAW
AP Religion Writer

There is a growing pressure on state and federal lawmakers to lift clergymen onto the same legal plane as lawyers and doctors.

The campaign slipped into high gear last year after a Baptist minister in Tennessee was fined $50 and given a 10-day suspended sentence. He had refused, during a divorce trial, to reveal information he had received in confidence.

The minister, the Rev. James Glisson, later was pardoned, but Tennessee churchmen were agitated to find that existing state law extended privileged communication only to lawyers and their clients.

And there was further stir in church circles when Washington lawyer A. Robert Theibault submitted a report on the national situation to the Baptist Joint Committee on Public Affairs.

Theibault's finding: Sixteen states and the District of Columbia have no laws protecting communication between clergymen and their parishioners. (Since the report, two states, Tennessee and South Carolina, have passed such legislation.)

The unprotected 14 remaining are Alabama, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Illinois, Maine, Massachusetts, Mississippi, New Hampshire, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Texas and Virginia.

Furthermore, Theibault reported, at least half the existing laws are inadequate and their wording leaves them open to almost any interpretation an individual court cares to give.

The June convention of the 12-million-member American Baptist Church passed a resolution urging its members to work for state and federal statutes guaranteeing ministerial immunity.

The Conference of Synodical Presidents of the United Lutheran Church in America has started the ball rolling toward getting approval of a similar declaration at the ULCA's 1960 convention.

BRIDGE

Overcall Is Costly Bid

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

South's two spade overcall is an example of a weakness of many rubber bridge players. Of course, he knew he was taking dummy but East played the king anyway and cashed the ten of clubs.

South was now down three tricks and East led a fourth club. This play established West's nine of trumps as another trick since if South trumped high West would simply discard. South had paid 1100 points for the luxury of an overcall.

Amend Reported Fair at Albany

The condition of Henry Amend, 20, of Russell Street, Saugerties, who was critically injured July 8 in a vehicular accident which took the life of Harold James Kimble, 20, of Box 411, Saugerties, was reported in "fair" condition today at the Albany Veterans Hospital.

He was injured when a 1949 sedan operated by Kimble went out of control on Route 212 and smashed into the rear side of a milk tanker.

Amend suffered a broken right leg, head injuries, bruises and contusions.

The pheasant's short cupped wings allow for a fast takeoff but not for sustained flight.

Poultrymen Are To Meet Monday At Accord School

Ulster County poultrymen are urged to meet at the Accord Grade School at 8 p. m. Monday, July 27, at which a county-wide poultry program will be discussed.

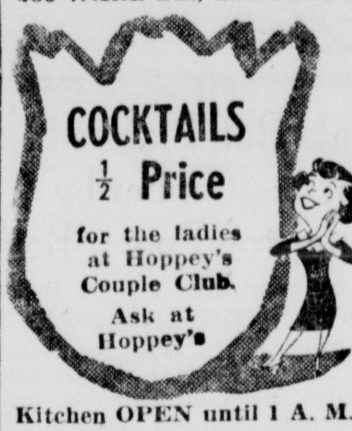

Robert D. Guzovich, associate Ulster County agricultural agent, said the "distress price situation has eased somewhat from the recent lows. However, the problem has not been eliminated yet."

He said the possibility of forming an area-wide or state poultrymen's group will be investigated, pointing out that a state-wide active poultry group would be good for the poultry industry.

New York City Cops Relax At Elka Park Police Camp

By TOM TURLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer
ELKA PARK, N. Y. (AP)—High up in the Catskills is a unique resort that caters only to cops. New York City cops, who would just as soon be called cops as policemen.

Extends 600 Acres
One hundred and 25 miles from the hot pavements where they work, four to five thousand of "New York's finest" relax in groups during each summer on a 600-acre estate deep in lush woodlands.

They check in with their families at a 120-room stucco and red-tiled hotel where a staff of 95 eases them into leisurely living. At no cost to the metropolis, although the policemen receive paid vacations.

Surrounding the main building are 19 cottages for large families and three spacious guest houses. Within walking distance are tennis courts, a swimming pool, horse-shoe pits, a baseball field and volleyball and badminton courts. Three local golf courses also beckon.

Have Entertainment
The cops love it. They hold square dances, masquerade s, amateur talent hours and social games in the hotel recreation hall, called the "Huddle Room."

"All ranks are dropped at the gate when we come here," Inspector Joseph J. Regan Jr. said. "It's a good place for young cops with large families. They pay about 40 per cent less than they would for the same accommodations elsewhere."

"This thing all started in 1925 when Richard Enright was police commissioner," Detective James F. Shea said. "He sent up the police riot battalion to clear out the woods. Gradually we've built it up. No other police force in the country has anything quite like it."

Operates At Loss
The "Police Recreation Center Inc." is a non-profit corporation maintained by the various city police organizations. It operates at a financial loss. But the Police Relief Fund, to which all 24,000 members of the force contribute, makes up the difference.

Backstopping the Police Relief Fund is a bequest of 2½ million dollars made in 1954 in the will of Sylvia A. H. G. Wilkes, the daughter of Hetty Green, the famous feminine financial wizard.

The department has memorialized the gift by having a medal struck each year to be awarded to a member of the force for an act of bravery.

As a direct result of the bequest, the center built a swimming pool in 1956.

"I wish the public could see the boys up here," Regan said. "They're at their best as family men. We get tired of public misconceptions and stereotypes, stuff that went out of style years ago. Television and Hollywood hurt us."

"Actually, the boys are pretty well-behaved," Patrolman Walter C. Donovan said. "They come here to relax and leave the toil and tension behind. We never have any trouble."

From Inside Out
The accepted Eskimo method of building an igloo is to finish the job from the inside before a door is made. The owner of a new house then must chop his

Veterans' Rights, Benefits Listed

Charles L. Culver, state veterans counselor, NYS Division of Veterans Affairs and John B. Tyler, director, Ulster County Veterans Service Agency, submit another in a series of articles on rights and benefits of veterans, servicemen and other dependents.

Civil Service—Applications for the following positions in New York State Civil Service will be accepted up to August 10, 1959. Industrial Engineer, Assistant Heating & Ventilating Engineer, Principal Civil Engineer (Physical Research), Associate Civil Engineer (Physical Research), Senior Administrative Assistant (engineering), Assistant Park Maintenance Supervisor, Highway Light Maintenance Foreman, Canal Structure Operator, Elevator Starter, Motor Equipment Maintenance Supervisor, Assistant Motor Equipment Maintenance Supervisor, Inspector of Weights & Measures, Key Punch Operator-IBM, Unemployment Insurance Accounts Examiner, Hearing Reporter, Hearing Stenographer, Associate Medical Virologist, Photofluorographer, Junior Illustrator, Psychiatrist, Westchester County. Competitive examinations for these titles are scheduled to be held on September 12, 1959, with the exception of the titles of Hearing Reporter and Hearing Stenographer which will be held on September 26, 1959.

Pension—The proposed bill H.R. 7650 which would change the non-service connected pension structure of the Veterans Administration which was approved during June by the House of Representatives is now in the U. S. Senate Finance Committee for further consideration and action. Usually the next step in the legislative process is for the Senate Finance Committee, after consideration and action, to report the bill to the full Senate for consideration.

Legislation—The U. S. Senate Committee on Labor and Public Welfare has reported a G.I. bill for peacetime veterans to the full Senate for consideration. This measure may be discussed in the Senate before the end of this congressional session. The bill, as reported, includes an educational and vocational training feature which would provide benefits not to exceed 36 months for peacetime veterans with at least six months of active duty in the U. S. Armed Forces since January 31, 1955, the date on which the Korean G.I. bill benefits ended. The bill, in its present form, would also provide Vocational Rehabilitation benefits for disabled veterans who incurred a vocational handicap because of a service connected disability. Additionally, this bill would provide veterans with six months or more of active duty both guaranteed and direct G.I. loan benefits. It is to be noted that eligibility is based on six months or more of active duty unless discharged for a service connected disability. This is a sharp departure from the former requirement under the World War II and Korean G.I. bills of a 90 day active duty requirement for eligibility for these benefits unless discharged for a service connected disability.

Questions about the rights and benefits of veterans, servicemen or their dependents may be submitted for individual attention to the NYS Division of Veterans Affairs and the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency office at 32 Main Street, Kingston.

Brom Booze to Bards

NEW YORK (AP)—Night clubs are being converted into theaters as part of off-Broadway's boom in drama. The latest to make the transition is the once-popular Cafe Society Downtown. The spot has been taken over for 10 years by a trio of young producers who will rebuild its interior as a drama showcase. At least half a dozen bistros have been similarly transformed during the last two seasons as late-hour business has declined and plays have become the thing.

Tips on Use Of an Attic Exhaust Fan

There is a right and a wrong way to do just about everything and this rule will naturally apply to an attic exhaust fan. Used correctly the proper size fan will do much to make a house comfortable in very hot weather. If used incorrectly, it will do some good but nothing compared to what it is capable of doing.

During the night the house structure becomes cool and if you keep shades and blinds pulled over windows, the house will remain cooler than the outdoors for several hours in the morning. During this period the attic fan should not be run except for a minute or so during the late morning hours to remove the heated air that has been collecting under the roof. If you open doors and windows and let the fan run all the time it will pull that nice cool air out of the house and pull in the warmer outside air.

When the house does start to warm up, then you can let the fan run and with windows open enjoy the cooling that you'll get from the increased circulation of air. As soon as the sun goes down, the air at ground level cools faster than the upper air so open up the windows near the ground and let the fan pull in this nice cool air.

At night, close off as much of the house as possible leaving bedroom doors and windows open. This will allow the fan to concentrate its energy in pulling fresh air through the bedroom and help everyone get a good sleep. It's wise if you have an automatic timer on the fan so that it will shut itself off during the night after the house has become comfortable. This will prevent getting the place too cool and also prevent the fan pulling the cool air out of the house during the early morning hours when it begins to get hot outside.

Poultry and Egg Industry Working Way Out of Slump

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department says the poultry and egg industry is working its way out of its worst price slump in many years.

But a department spokesman said the industry isn't out of the woods yet and there is no assurance that producers won't be in the same situation next spring. Egg prices were the lowest since 1951 this past spring.

The department for months has been buying dried eggs and, lately, frozen eggs to aid in reducing the supply. But, in the face of demands for drastic new programs, the department declined to buy fresh fowl and take other far reaching steps.

The end result is that egg and broiler production has been cut back and prices for both in the retail markets are moving up again. Broilers were offered in some stores at 29 cents a pound this spring. But in general, housewives today are paying 45 to 50 cents a pound for them.

The department spokesman said: "Egg producers definitely are working their way out of it, but broilers are slower in coming out of it. However, production is headed in the right direction. The outlook is far better than it was this spring, but it is far from cured."

The department, he said, always stands ready to aid in a situation but has no intention of taking over the whole show.

He said the department does not believe the crisis will be as bad next year.

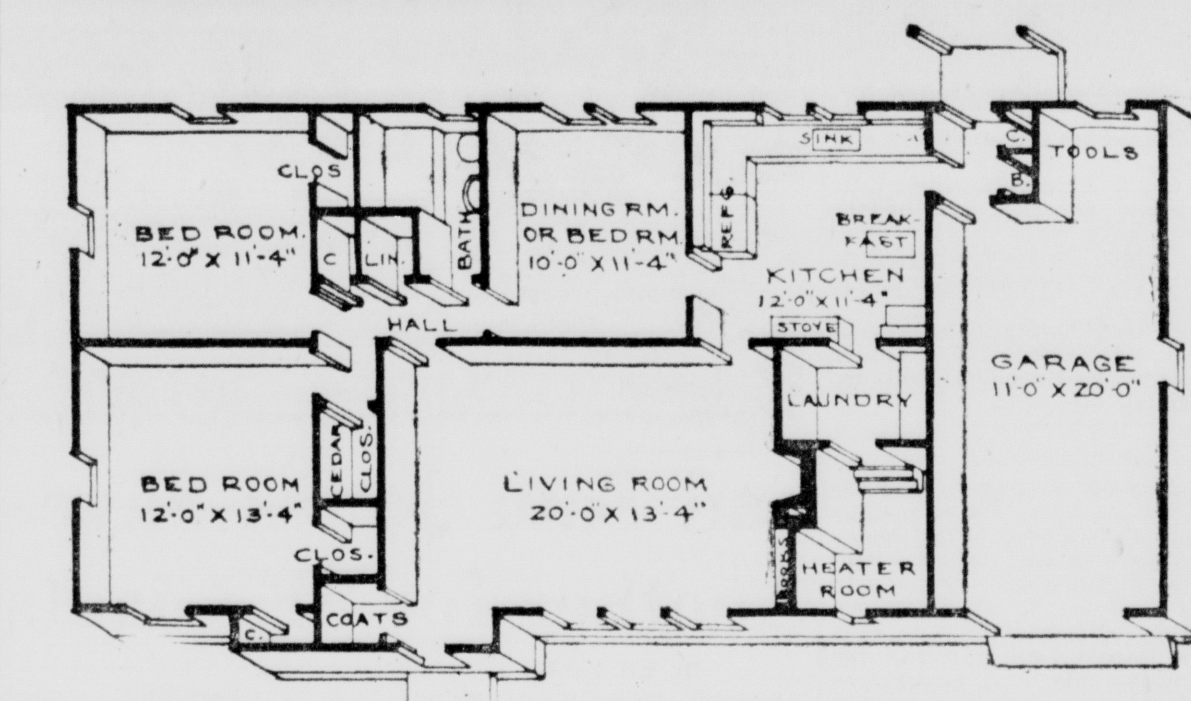

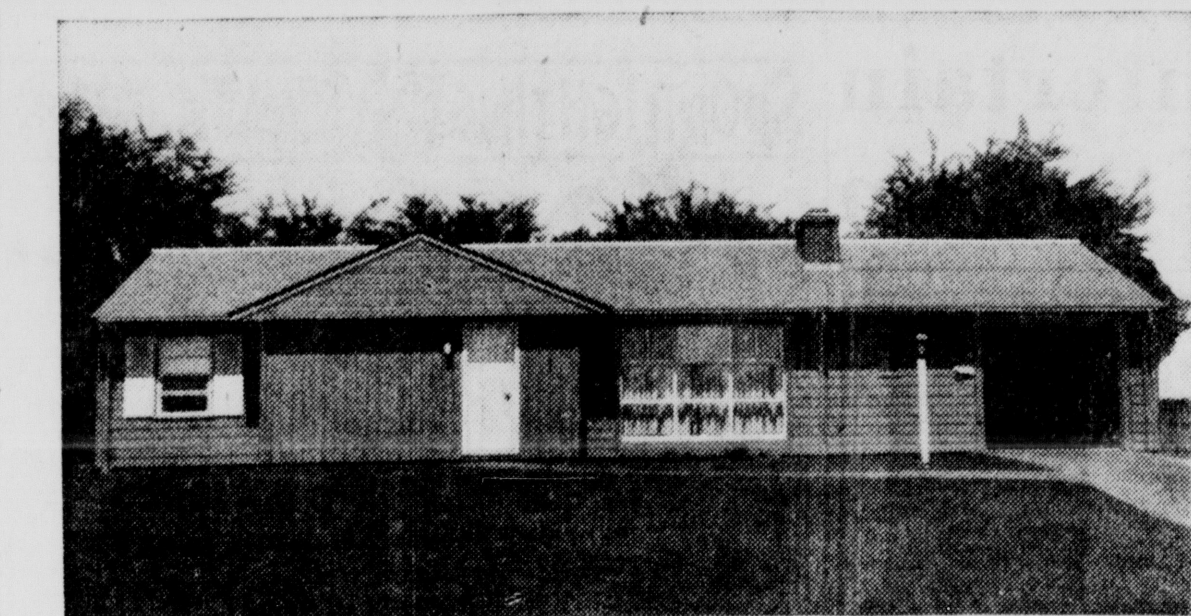

Sales, Earnings Dip For Bell Aircraft

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—The Bell Aircraft Corp., has announced consolidated sales of $65,736,855 and earnings of $1,418,784 for the first half of 1959.

The report, announced Friday, revealed a decline from the previous year's first-half sales and earnings.

In the first half of 1958, earnings were $2,175,703 and sales were $100,757,151.

A company spokesman said a substantial portion of the sales decline was attributed to a decline in the Niagara Frontier division which is almost entirely dependent on defense contracts.

'The Braman' ... Offers Many Advantages

Called "The Braman" today's offering from the Home of the Week Plan Service will delight those families looking for a really modern house. And because it can be built with or without a basement this one-story home will fit the needs of a wide number of prospective home owners.

While any exterior finish can be used successfully on this house, a horizontal and vertical pattern of claddings—as seen in the accompanying illustration—produces a pleasantly unusual appearance. The sectioned picture window in the living room adds just the right decorative touch. Place your home so that a good view can be enjoyed from this window and the interior of the house will reap even greater decorative benefits from this large window area.

80-Foot Lot
Measuring 56 by 26 feet, the house has a cubage of 17,500 feet. Garage cubage is 4300 feet. These figures are for the house without a basement. You'll need at least an 80-foot

Wail of Sirens May Have Stopped 15th Floor Leap

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—The wail of sirens from police and fire vehicles may have stopped a suicide leap from the 15th floor of the Statler-Hilton Hotel Friday, police said.

Mrs. Ruth Howell, 48, of Canton, Ohio, dangled her feet from the ledge at the 15th floor, but crawled back into her room when fire trucks and police cars arrived at the scene.

Police said Mrs. Howell told them she had intended to jump, but gave no reason. They could give no reason for changing her mind.

She was charged with violation of the state mental hygiene law and taken to a hospital for observation.

Don't Spoil Brush

Never stand a paint brush on its bristle tips. If you do, it will soon acquire a permanent bend which cannot be removed. Brushes left in solvents to soak should be suspended by the handle.

lot to build this home and will do well to place it back a good distance from the road with as much land as possible on the remaining three sides.

The interior of "The Braman" is in keeping with the modern exterior. Largest—and most attractive—of the seven rooms is the living room. A large fireplace and built-in bookshelves add considerably to the appeal of the room.

Because the living room is so spacious it easily can serve as a dining room, too. Thus, if you need a third bedroom—or want a guest room—you can use the dining or bedroom for either purpose.

There also are two large well lighted and well ventilated bedrooms in the left wing of the house. In both of these bedrooms—as is the case throughout the house—there are ample storage facilities. The extra large cedar closet opening on the central hallway is the answer to many a housewife's prayer.

In the compactly arranged kitchen there is a breakfast nook—where between meal snacks and even lunches can be served as well as the morning meal.

In Case of Basement

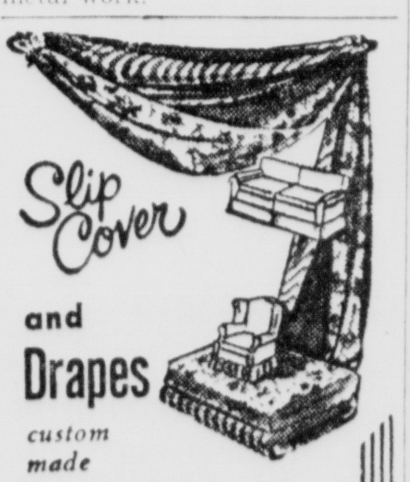

Since no basement is required for this house both the laundry and heating room are placed on the ground floor. If you prefer a basement, stairs can be installed in the heater room area for ready access. Of course, you also can have the heater in the basement then, if you prefer. Such an arrangement would give you more space in your first floor laundry.

Use Your Vacuum

An easy way to remove dust and dirt from portable electric tools, such as drills, sanders, polishers, and saws, is with a vacuum cleaner air hose attached to the blower end of the cleaner. Power tool home workshop experts point out that this blows out the dust without damaging tool parts.

Remove Hardware

For a good paint job all hardware is removed before painting door knobs, escutcheons, latches, window locks. And lighting fixtures are loosened. This not only makes a painting job easier, faster and neater when finished, but also gives you a chance to clean and polish all metal work.

Braves Slated to Entertain Nyack Tonight at Stadium

Frank Horan Set To Take Mound For 1958 Champs

Only one game behind league leading Poughkeepsie, the Kingston Braves entertain the Nyack Welders and their ace pitcher, Frank Horan, tonight, 8:30 o'clock at Dietz Stadium in a New York-New Jersey Baseball League game.

The rest of the weekend schedule shows Poughkeepsie at Spring Valley this afternoon and Spring Valley at Beacon and Nyack at Saugerties tomorrow afternoon.

Horan, a 25 year old left-hander, had the lowest earned run average in the circuit last season. He won three games and lost one while allowing only two earned runs in 41 innings of pitching. He walked seven batters while striking out 51 and was a prime factor why the Welders won the league championship. His ERA was a gaudy 0.44.

Kingston's stylish lefty, Bob Maines, is expected to get the start on the hill tonight. Big Bob has a 3-0 league mark this season. His claim to fame in the circuit during the 1958 season was his 96 strikeouts for 58 innings. He led the hurlers in strikeouts last year but his ERA was 2.30 and he was hampered all season by a lack of hitting on the part of his teammates.

Fred Davi said it is expected his entire club will be here and most of them made the journey to Nyack three weeks ago when they arrived late and had to forfeit the game. They haven't forgotten that trip.

Dodgers Suffer By Lack of Hits

By CHARLES MAHER
LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers are still getting sound pitching, but their offense has degenerated into a force so futile that polished pitching may not be enough.

They have lost two full games to league-leading San Francisco in the past four days and now trail by 2½. Even if pitching really is 90 percent of the game, they're likely to come upon truly troubled times if they don't start hitting soon.

"Everyone's looking like Walter Johnson against us," Manager Walter Alston grumbled Friday night after his Dodgers dropped a 2-1 decision to the St. Louis Cardinals.

"Everybody on the club seems to stop hitting at once," Alston said.

"We've had three batting practice pitchers come out here every night and throw for about an hour and a half. So it isn't a lack of practice. We're just not hitting, that's all."

In their last 22 games, the Dodgers have scored only 60 runs, or an average of about 2.73 per game. Largely because of able pitching, they have managed to win exactly half of those 22.

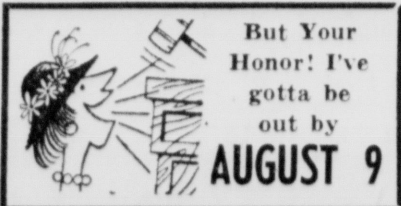

Tigers Wallop Yankees, 13-5

The Yankees are even having trouble in the Town of Hurley Little League. Last night the Tigers won a 13-5 decision as they scored in each frame but the fourth.

Don Cashdollar had the only extra base hit of the game, a double. Terry Alexander was the winner over Al Drake.

Scoring by innings:
R H
Yanks 0 2 2 0 1 0 — 5 4
Tigers 3 4 2 0 4 — 13 8
Gary Beesmer, Al Drake and John Tweedy, Terry Alexander and Mike O'Conner.

Billy Short, the first native of Port Even likely to wear a New York Yankee uniform, is variously reported as being out of Binghamton and a resident of Newburgh.

Truth of the matter is Billy was born in Port Even, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Short, he of Spiny baseball fame. The family later moved to Newburgh where Bill attended Newburgh Academy and gave early promise of pitching stardom.

The Binghamton angle escapes us and was probably the result of carelessness on the part of a harried sportswriter who had to meet a deadline.

George Hughes, the Twaalfskill golf star, has been reported as a Catskillian in stories moving out of the New York State Amateur golf tournament at Troy Country Club.

Then, of course, we have that native boy wonder who went on to football fame at Poughkeepsie High and Notre Dame. Monty Stickle has been claimed, and rightfully so, by Poughkeepsie these many years. But he was born in Kingston.

Flotsam and Jetsam:

Carmine Abbatiello and William Popfinger continue to lead the drivers at Monticello Raceway, now a million bucks better in take than a comparable period in 1958. Abbatiello has been in the money 28 times in 45 starts, with 13 firsts, 8 seconds and 7 shows. Popfinger's chart reads: 35 in the money in 69 starts, with 12 firsts, 10 place and 13 show. The time statistics are reaching big track proportions. Greentree Boy, driven by Abbatiello, has the best pace time of 2:03.1 and Jessie Colby, with Harold Dancer, Jr. in the sulky, has the best trot time of 2:05 for the mile. . . . Overlooked in the shuffle of the Wiltwyck Invitational were such items as Bill Weatherwax of Red Hook taking low gross honors with a 76 in the Sunday consolation event and a 74 in the 100-mile race, and George Consenza and Bob Daly of Wiltwyck with 74s. Each participant, each club member and each contributor will receive a copy of the beautiful 42-page program printed for the tournament.

Change for a $30 Bill:

Red DeFreitas, the public relations major domo at Saratoga Raceway, sends along the following interesting tale of a pacer.

Two years ago Pete Dailey, who trains for Robert Metzner had a problem. His promising colt Corsican was a kicker in the Memorial Challenge Cup. It worked, but when Dailey went to purchase the goat, nominal value about $17, the price was hiked to $30. The goat was named Thirty Dollar Bill.

The gentled-down Corsican went on to become the nation's 2-year-old pacer of the year. When Corsican was turned out last year, Thirty Dollar Bill latched on to Bubbles Hanover, a Metzner trotting mare, and set up housekeeping in her stall.

Thirty Dollar Bill and Corsican were reunited in Orlando, Fla., last winter. Thirty Dollar Bill obviously recognized Corsican, but after "talking" with him a few minutes, went back to his new companion, Bubbles Hanover.

Of Men and Mice:

Charles Masterson defeated Archie Oldham, 6-3, 6-2, in the recent finals of the Lake Mohonk Tennis Club tournament, thereby gaining a second leg on the Russell Palmer Trophy. Mrs. August Ganzemuller won from Mrs. Eleanor Blair, 6-3, 6-3, in the women's finals and thus won a second leg on the Martha McDermott Memorial Challenge Cup. . . . Dr. William D. Harris, the Port Ewen dentist, asked Gene Sarazen an old, familiar question after Sunday's exhibition in Woodstock: "How did you feel when you scored that famous double-eagle in the Masters tournament?" Sarazen quickly replied "I started thinking about the next three holes." The Germantown Squire realized three pars would give him a chance to win the tournament or tie for first place. As it turned out, he tied Craig Wood and beat him in a playoff the next day. Sarazen had good witnesses. He was paired with the great Walter Hagen that day and Bobby Jones, the Atlanta golf immortal and architect of Masters was on the green.

Sarazen has been amused by one interesting by-product of that historic shot. "If all the people who claim they saw me make that shot were present, there would have been 50,000 on hand. Matter of fact there were only about 15 people following us."

Water stored in a tank for use in baptisms came to the rescue in saving a Dallas (Ga.) church. When lightning struck the New Hope Baptist Church and set it afire, firemen connected a pump to the baptismal tank and put out the blaze.

The salesman breezed into the office of Julius J. Grouch one sultry afternoon.

Salesman—Hi, Willie, haven't seen you in a long time. How's your boss standing the heat?

Willie—Haven't heard. He's only been dead a week.

On one occasion when William Howard Taft was campaigning in unfriendly territory someone threw a cabbage at him. It rolled to a stop at Taft's feet. Taft—I see that one of my adversaries has lost his head.

Nowadays apples are so expensive that you might as well have the doctor.

Saleslady in a hat shop: Saleslady—That's a darling hat. Really, it makes you look 10 years younger.

Customer—Then I don't want it. I can't afford to put on 10 years every time I take off my hat.

While being rushed to a hospital in an ambulance, Walter Schimmel, of Frankfurt, Ind., was killed when the ambulance sped into the path of a freight train. The ambulance driver was unhurt.

Man (on trial in Detroit on a charge of begging): I beg for mercy, judge.

Judge—You're a poor beggar. (as he sentenced the man to 45 days in jail).

to increase the vocabulary of her charges. She had played a list of words upon the blackboard to be used in sentences. Billy, a notably lazy child, was called upon first.

In most instances, all an argument proves is that two people are present.

Wife—I haven't a single decent dress. Husband—You wouldn't wear it if you had one.

Wives talk more than husbands, says a writer. Of course it's because husbands are too polite to interrupt them.

Retain McGregor Camp, Legion Bids Governor

About the Folks

Donald E. Koeppen, 31, of 36 Abbey Street, an employee of The Freeman, remained under treatment at Kingston Hospital today, according to a spokesman at the hospital. He was seriously injured Sunday, July 12, when his automobile went out of control and smashed into several trees off Creek Locks Road, Bloomington.

Opinion Issued On Fire Coverage During Parades

A fire commissioner in an organized fire district in the state is not personally liable if the district is adequately and reasonably protected when the fire apparatus of his district is participating in a parade or convention, according to a ruling announced this weekend.

State Comptroller Arthur Levitt issued an opinion which should clear up any confusion which may still exist over the personal liability of fire commissioners in allowing fire apparatus of their district to participate in parades.

This ruling made at the request of a Village Board, makes it unmistakably clear that the comptroller's office does not conceive of any personal liability to a fire commissioner if the district is adequately and reasonably protected. The opinion refers to a system of mutual aid as among the methods of providing this adequate and reasonable protection.

This position does not alter the previous opinion which was directed to the specific situation of inadequate protection. Levitt said, "Under rare circumstances in which no provisions were made for protection, a fire commissioner, as indeed any public official, could be considered negligent and hence held responsible for damages. I am certain that any competent attorney would provide similar advice to his clients."

Levitt noted that the issue of personal liability is based on a 1926 ruling of the attorney general. Referring to that ruling he said that "the basic rule of law remains sound. The question of what amounts to reasonable fire protection should nevertheless be reviewed by the attorney general in the light of changing circumstances. Today fire districts have modern equipment, effective systems of mutual aid, and most have up-to-date communication systems. These are the factors, among others, that may be taken into consideration locally. If prudent consideration is given to them—and I am sure this is the case in almost all instances—then the rule of law would be satisfied."

Killed in Car Crash

WEST FALLS, N. Y. (AP)—Eugene Hudson, 19, of nearby Orchard Park, was fatally injured today when the car in which he was riding swerved off Rt. 240 near this Western New York community.

Miami, Fla., has almost as many foreign consulates as Washington, D. C.

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—The New York State American Legion is appealing to Gov. Rockefeller to retain the Mt. McGregor rest camp for veterans.

It was reported earlier this week that the Rockefeller administration was considering closing the camp, near Saratoga Springs, as an economy move. The current appropriation for Mt. McGregor is $969,325.

Opened in 1945

The Legion said Friday in a resolution adopted at its 41st annual convention that the camp was sorely needed for the proper rehabilitation and convalescent care of many war veterans of this state.

Mt. McGregor was opened as a convalescent home for veterans in 1945. An average of 3,000 veterans has used its facilities annually. There have been criticisms that many veterans have gone to the camp for state-paid vacations. The division of veterans affairs has denied this.

Lt. Gov. Malcolm Wilson told the Legion convention Friday the state government was seeking economies in all its operations but had reached no decision on Mt. McGregor.

Protests of veterans organizations saved the camp two years ago after the state had decided to close it.

It was reported the building at Mt. McGregor would be converted to other state uses if the rest camp were abolished under the Rockefeller administration.

Backs Res Stand

In other resolutions, the legionnaires:

1. Expressed "fullest faith" in President Eisenhower's handling of the Berlin crisis.

2. Urged members to refuse to contribute to any fund campaigns for the 1960 Olympics unless Nationalist China replaced Red China as a participating nation.

3. Asked the Legislature to authorize local governments to control business activity on Memorial Day. The Legion said that holiday was being commercialized.

The legionnaires turned out 8,000 strong Friday night for the annual convention parade. More than 100,000 spectators lined the streets on a clear, dry night.

Scout Is Carried To Safety, Hit, Burned by Bolt

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—Rescue squads carried a 16-year-old Explorer Scout to safety Friday night after he had been burned and knocked unconscious by a lightning bolt on 13,000-foot Pawnee Pass west of Boulder.

The youth, William MacDonald of Denver, was rescued by members of the Rocky Mountain Rescue Unit and the Longmont Rescue squad, led by Boulder County Deputy Sheriff Dale Goetz.

The youth was hospitalized at Boulder Community Hospital. Attendees reported he had burns on the right side of his head, right shoulder, and back.

MacDonald's condition was said to be good. The rescue party rolled him down the steep, narrow mountain trail on a special one-wheel stretcher.

Owner of Cottage Where Rat Killed Child, Fined $100

NEW YORK (AP)—The owner of a cottage where rats bit an infant to death last month has been fined $100.

Mrs. Anna Policastro, 60, was fined in Brooklyn Magistrate's Court Friday for six violations of health ordinances.

The child, Richard Fox, four months, was attacked by rats as he lay in his bed in the Coney Island cottage his family rented. His mother, Mrs. Rose Fox, told the court she heard her son screaming and found his face covered with blood and part of his leg eaten away.

A health inspector testified that rats and rat holes had been found in an inspection of the dwelling.

West Camp Man Critical: Hurt in Tractor Accident

The condition of Neil Jacobsen, 84, West Camp, who was injured in a tractor mishap Thursday afternoon, was reported as "critical" today at the Greene County Memorial Hospital, Catskill.

Jacobsen was cutting hay about 4 p. m. when the tractor went over a 30-foot embankment, overturned and came to rest on its wheels.

He suffered a fractured jaw, possible rib fractures and other injuries.

Jacobsen resides on Eastport road with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy E. Jacobsen.

Postpone Sentencing Woman Bank Robber

NEW YORK (AP)—The sentencing of a woman convicted of robbing a Yonkers bank with three men last April has been postponed July 31.

Federal District Judge Edmund L. Palmieri ordered the postponement Friday pending completion of a probation report.

The woman, Mrs. Barbara Ann

State Road Toll Over '58 Figure

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—The highway death toll in New York State stood at 978 at the half-way point of 1959.

The total for the first half of last year was 971.

The State Motor Vehicles Bureau reported Friday that 175 highway deaths last month had pushed the January-June total for this year past the mark for the first six months of 1958.

578,000 Idled By Steel Strike

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP)—The number of workers idled by the 11-day-old nationwide steel strike has reached 578,000.

Approximately 500,000 of these are United Steelworkers who struck the basic steel industry at midnight July 14.

The other 78,000 are employees in allied industries that have been forced to curtail operations because of the strike.

50,000 RR Men Out

Hardest hit of this group are the railroaders. G. E. Leighty, chairman of the Railway Labor Executives Assn., said Friday that nearly 50,000 railroad employees had been furloughed since the strike began.

Representatives of the steel industry and the union are due to resume negotiations in New York Monday with the help of federal mediators.

But Joseph F. Finnegan, chief of the Federal Mediation Service, has told newsmen repeatedly he sees no easy or early solution to the strike.

Mitchell Not in Office

Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell, who is acting as strike fact-finder for President Eisenhower, was absent from his Washington office Friday. His aides said they did not know where he was. This touched off speculation that he might be in touch with industry and union representatives personally, as he had said earlier he might do.

The Reynolds Metals Co. joined two other aluminum producers and the steel companies Friday in rejecting United Steelworker demands for a wage hike. Reynolds' labor pact with the union expires July 31 along with those of the Aluminum Co. of America and the Kaiser Aluminum & Chemical Corp.

As each day of the steel strike passes, the industry loses about 300,000 tons of ingot steel production. This amounts to about 300 million dollars worth of business each week. And the striking Steelworkers' wage losses run to nearly 70 million dollars a week.

IN THE SERVICE

New Assignment

Army Pvt. Roy H. Hoffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hoffman, Mount Tremper, recently was assigned to the 3d Infantry, the Army's top ceremonial unit, at Fort Meyer, Va.

Members of the unit are specially selected to serve as the President's personal honor guard and to perform ceremonial activities at high-level functions in the Washington, D. C., area.

Pvt. Hoffman, a member of the infantry's Company D, entered the Army in January 1959.

The 22-year-old soldier is a 1954 graduate of Oneonta Central High School and a 1957 graduate of Westchester Community College in White Plains. He was associated with Hoffman and Sons, Inc., before entering the Army.

Van Valkenburgh

to the former Miss Margaret Wicks of New Paltz, daughter of George Wicks.

During World War II, he served with the field artillery and held the rank of major at the time of his honorable discharge.

In Paltz 14 Years

A resident of New Paltz for 14 years, he served as financial secretary to Dr. William J. Haggerty, president of the New Paltz State Teachers College. He later was employed as assistant manager of Thomsons Laundry of this city. When the business was sold he became assistant director of personnel at Daystrom Electric Co., Poughkeepsie and from that position was nominated as postmaster.

Prominent in community activities, he serves as director of Civil Defense for the Town of New Paltz and is past president of New Paltz Rod and Gun Club, New Paltz Fire Department, and Town of New Paltz Republican Club.

An active Boy Scout leader, he now serves as neighborhood commissioner and Explorer advisor of Explorer Post 77 of that community.

His appointment to the teaching staff of New Paltz Junior High School was announced at the recent board of education meeting.

Melvar, 21-year-old mother of four, was convicted in the $49,000 robbery of the Greystone branch of the First National Bank of Yonkers.

She could receive a maximum sentence of 20 years in prison. The three men were sentenced last week.

Storm Ties Up Trains, Subways In N. Y. C. Friday

NEW YORK (AP)—Traffic was back to normal in the city today after a violent thunderstorm tied up trains and subways.

The storm struck with sudden violence Friday, snarling transportation for several hours.

Several long-distance trains were stranded about three hours at the Pennsylvania Railroad's Sunnyside, Queens, yards after lightning caused a power failure. A commuter train to Bay Head Junction, N. J., also was affected.

Subway trains between Manhattan and Queens were stalled several minutes when lightning damaged a power generator. Water in the tunnel between the two boroughs halted service in a section of Queens.

The trains affected included The Spirit of St. Louis to St. Louis, The Southerner to New Orleans, The General to Chicago, The Embassy to Washington, and The Broadway Limited to Chicago.

Lightning also damaged several midtown Manhattan buildings.

A doorman, Fred Lawry, 65, was injured when a metal door he was holding was struck by a lightning bolt. Police said he apparently was saved from death because he was standing on a rubber mat.

French School At Hurley Holds Social Gathering

A social gathering including the presentation of three short plays was held at the French School in the old stone house in Hurley Thursday night.

A French film, "La Premiere Nuit," was shown and three very short plays in French were enacted by the students in the sunken dining room, formerly a blacksmith shop in the old stone house.

The children's play was presented first and was staged on a terrace of a cafe in Paris. The players were Robert Newcombe, Daisy Beal, Harry Hanson, Suzanne Perlman, Barbara Bushnell, Stefanie Newcombe and Lydia Newcombe.

A grand hotel was the scene of the second play in which Mrs. Harold Rakov, Mrs. Kathryn Burgevin and Miss Patricia Beach participated.

Jeffrey Newcombe and Linn Carl had parts in the third play. The film depicted the life of the famous French guitarist of gypsy origin, Django Reinhardt.

Refreshments were served following the entertainment.

The first three week session of the French School conducted by Anne Fessenden was completed on Friday. The second session begins Monday.

'Blacked Out'

said after beating her, Noah turned on the children. The daughters, Carmen, 2, and Veronica, 1, suffered multiple bruises and burn-like injuries. Noah did not attack his own child, the mother said.

"He made me witness torture of the children," she said. "He kept repeating 'now you watch' everytime he beat the children and used the cigar," she said.

Thursday night he threatened all would die "tomorrow morning."

She said she got out the back door of the house "before he could reach me."

Noah, who said he was in the "transportation business," was charged with second-degree assault was placed in Erie County Jail without bail to await action Aug. 4.

City Court Judge Casimer T. Partyska adjourned the case until then to permit Noah to get an attorney.

No bail was set because Noah has a previous felony conviction, police said. They said he was convicted on a charge of robbery in 1934. He also had a list of 19 other arrests, "most of them traffic violations," they said.

Mrs. Helbling said she had hoped to join her husband in Germany.

Kidnaping Story

and tear which an ordeal such as she described would have inflicted. And her one bruise—on her left arm—failed to tally with her account of being struck in the mouth by one of her captors after he locked her in the bathroom of an unidentified house in the Chicago area before her release.

Hart said his daughter is suffering from nervous exhaustion and is under a physician's care somewhere in Chicago. He said he did not know when they would return to their Short Hills, N.J., home along with Miss Hart's fiancée, Stanley J. Gaines, 25, of Fayetteville, W.Va., who flew in from New Jersey with Hart Friday.

How Miss Hart, who is to marry Gaines Aug. 29, came to Chicago and if she came alone remained a mystery.

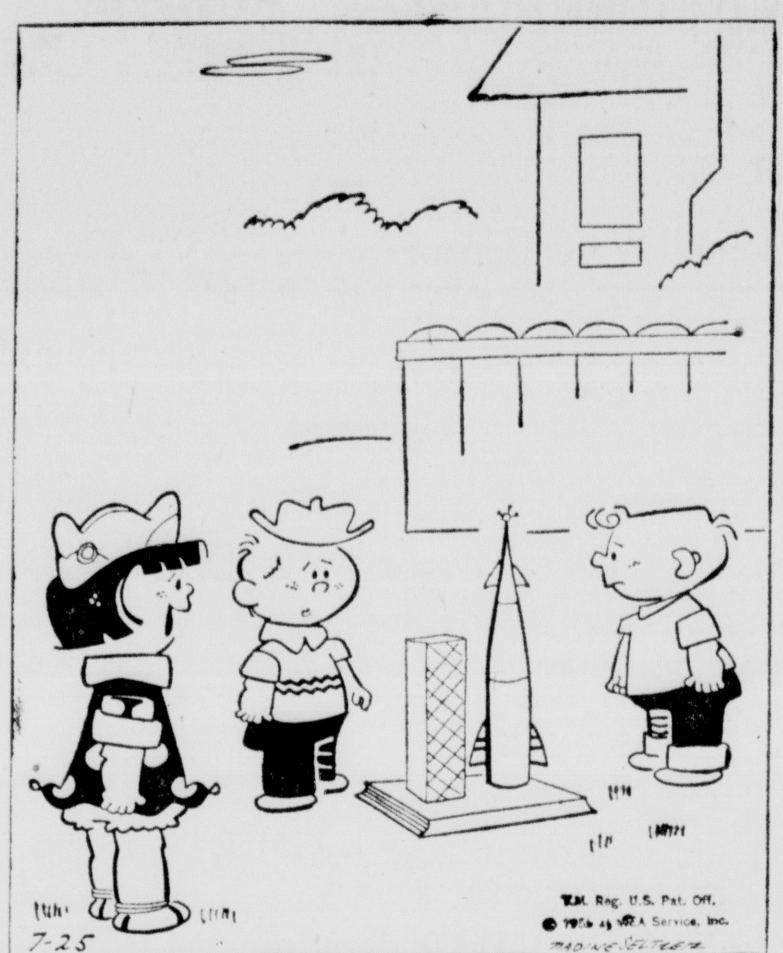

Perfect Performance

POINT ARGUELLO, Calif. (AP)—The Naval Research Laboratory says a two-stage Nike-ASP rocket performed perfectly as it hurled a 50-pound payload 140 miles aloft Friday.

The laboratory is conducting the project to study effects of solar flares. It reported that instruments in the payload had transmitted data for 7½ minutes before the rocket plunged into the sea.

Two Meet First In 30 Years - Their Autos Hit

SPOKANE (AP)—A couple of old friends accidentally bumped into one another at a downtown intersection Friday, their first meeting since attending school together 30 years ago.

Police said an automobile driven by Mrs. Thelma Cramp of Avery, Idaho, smashed into the rear of one driven by Arthur S. Herman.

There were no injuries and, naturally, no hard feelings.

Girl, 16, Escapes Burns as Mower Tank Blows Up

Rosemary Stephens, 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Anna Stephens, 338 Foxhall Avenue, narrowly escaped burns Friday afternoon, when the gasoline tank of a power lawn mower exploded after the motor backfired and ignited the machine.

Engine 1 and Truck 1 from Central headquarters, Wick's Hose Company and the Salvage truck responded to an alarm at 2:31 p. m. in charge of Chief James M. Brett and Captain Joseph Ditch.

Before firemen arrived Miss Stephens managed to push the burning lawn mower from the garage and her mother drove an automobile a safe distance away. Firemen extinguished the fire with CO-2.

Mrs. Stephens told a Freeman reporter that her daughter filled the gasoline tank of the mower, and seconds later the motor backfired, igniting the machine.

She said her daughter pushed the mower from the garage and the girl jumped away as the tank exploded. The blast blew the top off the tank.

A veteran fire official said, "that's the first lawn mower fire I ever responded to."

Rosendale, Tillson News Reformed Church Supper and Fair Slated on Aug. 8

The Ladies' Aid Society of Tillson Reformed Church is busily engaged in preparing for its annual fair and ham supper to be held at the church Saturday, Aug. 8 from 11 a. m. through suppertime.

Many new attractions are in the offing this year including the sale of food during the lunch hour followed by an auction at 1 p. m. Items for the auction include furniture, antiques and odds and ends which are being donated. Local merchants are also contributing new articles. Anyone wishing to donate to the auction may contact Mrs. Raymond Boyle of Tillson and arrangements will be made to pick up the donations, if necessary.

The booths at the fair include fancy, baked goods, garden, books, games for children, surprise booth and others.

The fair will close with a ham supper from 5:30 p. m. until all are served.

Seminar Scheduled

Sunday at 6 p. m. there will be a seminar for Hope College students and high school seniors who might attend Hope College in the future. The evening will include worship service with the Sacrament of Holy Communion at 6 p. m., a spaghetti supper for which there is no charge at 6:45 p. m., and an informal "swap shop" or discussion and social hour following the showing of a film on Hope College.

Hudson Man Drowns

HUDSON, N. Y. (AP)—James Brown, 28, of Hudson, was drowned Friday while swimming in Oakdale Beach Lake near here. He sank beneath the surface while swimming toward shore from a float. His body was recovered.

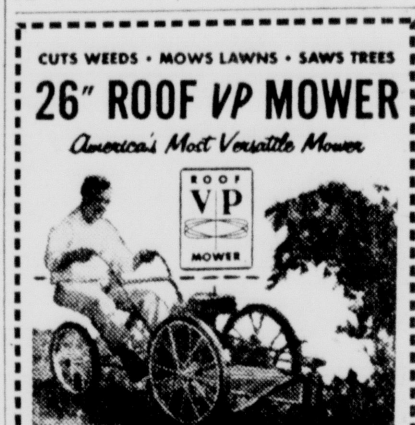

Mayor's Son Is Killed as Auto Goes Off Road

CORINTH, N. Y. (AP)—Donald Ticknor, son of the mayor of this Saratoga County village, was killed Friday night when the automobile he was driving left the highway and struck a tree north of here. He was about 20.

Three other youths riding in the car were injured, one of them critically.

Ticknor was the son of Mayor and Mrs. Veldome P. Ticknor. Taken to Glens Falls Hospital where William Robarge, 20, listed in critical condition; George Elder, 18, and Robert Baldwin, 19, all of Corinth.

The Taj Mahal, famed mausoleum in India, was built by Shah Jahan as a burial place for his favorite wife, Mumtaz-i-Mahal.
